

Fuel assistance is coming

New guidelines to expand program

By CHARITY B. LEGVOLD

WILMINGTON - With economic questions on everyone's minds right now, Selectmen welcomed Elderly Services Director Theresa Marciello to speak before them on the subject of fuel assistance programs.

"Of course everyone has a very serious concern about how they are going to heat their homes," said Marciello in her opening remarks Tuesday night.

Marciello noted that current income guidelines only help a small percentage of the people who need assistance, but she said that help is on the way. Effective November 1, 2008, new income guidelines will be implemented that will raise the qualifying income levels a bit to allow more residents to receive assistance. Marciello will release those guidelines to local media when they become available.

Many residents feared that their aid allocation would only cover partial costs for the winter; one half of a tank of oil, for example, and that would not be enough to see them through the winter. Marciello expects that the new allotments will go further than one-half tank of fuel. She noted that the assistance covers other forms of home heating also, such as electric, coal, wood, and gas.

For those who do not qualify for assistance under the new guidelines in November, other forms of aid are available through organizations such as the Salvation Army, Community Teamwork, Inc., and Joe Kennedy's program (which typically starts after December 1st).

Residents with questions are encouraged to call the Town Manager's office or to call Marciello at Elder Services for more information. All inquiries will be kept confidential.

Marciello said she discusses other options with residents that come in to meet her.

Thain takes Carnegie Hall

Wilmington resident performs on entertainment's biggest stage

WILMINGTON - For Wilmington resident, Andrew Thain, September 16, 2008, marked a musical milestone as he walked on the Perlman Stage at Carnegie Hall for the first time to sing in the opening performance of the World Concert Series.

In addition to the Carnegie Hall appearance, over the next three years the series will include performances in Australia, Italy, South America and throughout the United States.

Andrew has performed professionally and with local choirs for many years. His professional credits include singing with the Boston Pops and in Broadway theater. He has toured Russia, Estonia, Portugal, Vancouver, London and throughout the United States. Andrew will be making his second appearance at Royal Albert Hall in London this month as he sings with the The Saengerfest Men's Chorus of Boston, Massachusetts. The Saengerfest Men's Chorus performs locally and a schedule of upcoming performances can be found by visiting www.saengerfest.org.

Andrew, a member of the First Congregational Church of Stoneham, will be performing on December 7 at their annual holiday catata.

In addition to his busy performing schedule, Andrew is a full time middle school mathematics teacher in the Malden School system. A Wilmington resident since 2002, he resides with his wife, Nikki Moccia Thain, and their Golden Retriever, Drewkiki.

Celebrating a full century

Everyone is welcome to help celebrate Mary DiGirolamo's 100th birthday bash

By CHARITY B. LEGVOLD

WILMINGTON - Few people have lived through both World Wars, the Great Depression, a myriad of technological innovations that span a century, and Red Sox World Series wins in 1918, 2004, and 2007. A Wilmington family has decided that having witnessed all of that is one terrific reason to celebrate a special 100th birthday for their aunt, Mary DiGirolamo.

Born as Mary DiFiore on October 23, 1908 in East Boston, DiGirolamo was one of nine siblings - three brothers and six sisters - in a large Italian family raised in Chelsea. Her earliest memories include jumping rope and playing Ring Around the Rosie with friends in the old neighborhood.

In 1925 DiGirolamo took a job at Schrafft's Chocolate Factory in Charlestown where she worked for the next 11 years. During WWII, she worked in the Boston Navy Yard as a buffer/polisher. After the war, she returned to Schrafft's for an additional 11 years.

She moved from Chelsea to Wilmington somewhere around the mid to late 50's when she married Ernest DiGirolamo, on October 11, 1958 in a pink wedding dress. DiGirolamo's great, great-niece Kerrin Tammik said that DiGirolamo loved that dress and still speaks of it often.

Since moving to Wilmington, she has been an active member of St. Thomas of Villanova Church, the Buzzell Senior Center, AIM, and Sons of Italy. She loves to play bingo and she played many years at the senior center and now enjoys playing at Wilmington Woods where she moved in June to recover from a fall in which she fractured her pelvis. Up until that point, she had lived independently and Tammik says she really enjoyed being able to be in her own home, and have

Shawsheen Tech helping soldiers

BILLERICA - In November of 2004, Lou Cimaglia and a few friends came up with an idea.

A veteran of the Gulf War, Cimaglia often sent packages to other soldiers that he knew. Mailing items overseas can be expensive and time-consuming, so Cimaglia, his wife and several others decided to join forces and make their act of generosity a group outing.

"Every Wednesday night since Nov. 3 of 2004, we've been there," said Cimaglia, a member of Wilmington's Board of Selectman and the Director of Veteran Services in that community. "It's amazing."

What started as a small gathering has blossomed.

Anywhere from 20 to 50 people usually meet at Wilmington's Knights of Columbus each week at 7 p.m. to sort of items ranging from food to clothing to games to keep soldiers entertained. One of the soldiers that receives packages is Greg Nickerson, the 21-year-old Marine is the son of Shawsheen Valley Technical High School's Director of Building Facilities Joe Nickerson.

"It's a great organization," said Nickerson, who has worked at Shawsheen Tech for 19 years. "[Cimaglia] is like a prince in my eyes."

Cimaglia, who named the group Local Heroes, said many of the people that attend, like Nickerson, have loved ones overseas.

"It's sort of a support group," he said.

"It's good to go down and talk to other parents," added Nickerson, whose son is on his second tour of duty in Iraq.

Nickerson's involvement with Local Heroes has made a difference. Through his work at Shawsheen Tech, Nickerson has been able to use several items made by students at the school to either send to troops or sell at auctions that help the group raise money to cover the cost of postage.

"In September alone, we spent $4,500 just in postage," said Cimaglia.

Over the past few years, Shawsheen Tech students have built Adirondack chairs in the carpentry shop, aluminum cribbage boards in machine shop and backyard fire pits in metal fabrication shop. Many of the items have been auc-

Woburn Street School's beloved Pumpkin Fair this weekend

By CHARITY B. LEGVOLD

WILMINGTON - Children will find that pumpkins in the pumpkin patch, ponies to ride, cupcakes and sugar cookies and pumpkins to decorate, and monsters to create are only some of the highlights of the 31st Annual Woburn Street School Pumpkin Fair.

This indoor-outdoor rain or shine event will take place this Saturday, October 18, from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at the Woburn

Street School. Proceeds from the annual event will go directly into the classroom to fund items needed for curriculum, but which are not included in the regular budget.

Chairperson Gail O'Shea said that the Fair typically draws about 300 visitors, but that last year there were nearly 400 people in attendance. O'Shea said that for years people have come from all over the area to attend the annual Pumpkin Fair and now many people that attended the fair as children are bringing their own children back to experience that same childhood memory.

O'Shea credits families, local businesses and many volunteers with making the annual event such a success. "We're very lucky to have a lot of talented parents and grandparents, aunts and uncles who provide baked goods for the food area," O'Shea said. She also noted that the food area will feature pizza, hot dogs, chips and soda - with donations generously organized by Michael McCoy, owner of Michael's Place, a restaurant that joined other local businesses in making food donations.

Last year this event raised approximately $6,000, and organizers hope to top that this year. O'Shea said past events have had some great things and that they are just hoping to build on that with some of their own new ideas. One new area this year will be 'monster making' and face painting has been replaced with airbrush tattooing, which O'Shea says lasts a little longer and looks really sharp. She credits parent and high school student volunteers with helping them to offer some new activities to the

There is a tax abatement program and a tax work-off program that might provide relief to some qualifying residents.

"It's one of those matters that hit close to home for many people," said Marciello adding, "Don't hesitate to call."

Selectmen also welcomed Robert E. Grassia, a Verizon manager from the Engineering and Construction department to speak about the ongoing concern about the removal of double utility poles in town.

According to Grassia, a status report has been created that follows each double pole through a series of steps in the process to prepare it for removal. Starting with services at the top of the pole, such as Reading Light, and then down the pole through Comcast, alarm systems and fire services, all are moved to the new pole until the Verizon equipment lower on the pole. Once Verizon moves its lines and equipment to the new pole, the double pole is eliminated and the process is complete.

Grassia hopes the improved communication between agencies will streamline the double pole removal process. Selectmen were pleased that since they first saw the double pole report several weeks ago, the list went from 118 poles down to only 60 poles awaiting removal.

It's Your Money

by Joyce Brisbois

IS A HEALTH SAVINGS ACCOUNT RIGHT FOR YOU?

The basic HSA setup calls for a health-insurance policy with a deductible of at least $1,100 for individuals or $2,200 for families. Contributions to a health savings account are deductible up to $2,900 for an individual ($3,000 in 2009) or $5,800 for a family ($5,950 next year). Those over 55 get to deduct an extra $900 this year and $1,000 next year. The money grows tax-deferred and can be used for medical expenses in any year tax-free. Congress may in the future require documentation of those expenses.

Once you're on Medicare at age 65, contributions to the HSA are no longer allowed. The money in the account now can be used tax-free for anything without penalty.

You can fund an HSA for the whole year as late as December 1, but you must remain eligible for all of the next year, or a portion of the contribution is recaptured and taxed as income, with a penalty.

event. As in the past, there will also be two moon bounces in the gym and carnival-like games there as well. The outdoor pumpkin patch will feature pumpkins and corn stalks for sale.

Local businesses and residents also stepped up with donations to create a raffle area and a used book sale. "We're very grateful for the efforts and donations of goods and time from local merchants. We have some wonderful things to offer families this year," O'Shea said.

Things 'Go Bump' Oct. 25 at Old Sturbridge Village

Halloween event features evening of spooky safe family fun

STURBRIDGE, Mass. - There'll certainly be some tricks taking place, but the emphasis is more on treats as Old Sturbridge Village presents its annual "Things That Go Bump in the Night" event on Saturday, Oct. 25, from 5:00 to 9:00 p.m.

The museum's popular Halloween bash features a landscape crawling with ghosts, goblins, ghouls, witches, and wizards - not to mention living scarecrows and, all prowling the "haunted Village" illuminated by hundreds (and hundreds) of hand-carved grinning and groaning jack-o'-lanterns.

Stirring up a cauldron of frightful fun for everyone, "Bump" is sponsored by Country Bank and is scheduled to take place rain or shine. Cost is $12 per person, with children under 3 admitted free. This event has sold out in past years; advance registration is required and tickets are non-refundable. Visit the museum's website at: www.osv.org for online registration and complete details.

Guests of all ages get to stroll among trolls, visit with vampires, and mix and mingle with mummies and monsters lurking in colorful vignettes all celebrating the season of the witch.

The parade of horrors features creatures galore, including many costumed guests, who can trick-or-treat for candy around the Village Common and then enjoy safe-but-spooky storytelling, ghoulish games, and family friendly snacks - including hot chocolate and other seasonal treats.

Performers taking part in this year's Halloween event include Lucky Bob the Comedic Juggler, the Caravan Puppet Theater with puppeteer Jonathan Keezing, and a friendly fortune teller.

Old Sturbridge Village, celebrating New England life from 1790-1840, is one of the country's oldest and largest living history museums, with more than 40 restored buildings - farmhouses, working mills, meetinghouses, and craft shops - on more than 200 acres of fields and woods.

Located just off the Mass Pike, I-84 and Rte. 20 in Sturbridge, Mass., OSV is open year-round: from 9:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., seven days a week through Oct. 24, and then Tues.-Sun. 9:30 - 4:00 p.m. through April 3, 2009. Admission: $20; seniors $18; children 3-17, $7; children under 3, free. Admission includes free second-day visit within 10 days. OSV members receive free daytime admission all year long. For details, visit www.osv.org or call 800-SEE-1830.

Old Sturbridge Village gives kids and parents a "scary-but-safe" place to trick-or-treat at its annual "Things That Go Bump in the Night" event, from 5:00 - 9:00 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 25.

Letter to the editor

Generosity of Wilmington

Dear Editor,
I am writing to express our many thanks to the generous citizens of Wilmington, Elia's Country Market, Staples and Market Basket for their many contributions to the Wilmington Food Pantry in August. My office, Century 21, Starwood, simply arranged for the drop off sites at Elia's Country Market, Market Basket and our own office. Staples generously donated signs for the drop off days at the businesses. The generosity of citizens and these business owners was overwhelming. In fact, one unnamed angel dropped off seventeen bags of groceries to our office one evening.

On behalf of the Wilmington Food Pantry, I would like to express our thanks to all of you.

Sincerely,
Beth McGaffigan, Realtor
Century 21 Starwood
Wilmington

Practice Makes Perfect

BY: MARIE SHEEHY
TEWKSBURY MUSIC
ASSOCIATION

I sit in my car outside my son's weekly music lesson. Thank goodness it's not too cold yet <grin>. I hear beautiful, harmonious music this evening bounding from this home and I smile taking pleasure in the fact that the time and effort have definitely been worth it. More importantly, though, he derives so much pleasure from creating this music and it has become a vital component of his being.

How did this happen? When I think back, I can easily list more than 20 people who have been a part of this development since preschool — some are dedicated music professionals and educators; others have a love of music even though it's not their primary profession; still others have a vested interest in the students who come their way. Each of these 'teachers' has made their unique contribution.

"It is the supreme art of the teacher to awaken joy in creative expression and knowledge" — Albert Einstein. These individuals certainly have had that impact.

So, what is the one topic each of them asks about—that's right—PRACTICE! Is he practicing? How much is he practicing? What piece of music is he working on? Why? — Because practice does improve ability and performance.

While no one is perfect—opportunities are often missed due to the lack of practicing and perfecting one's talent. In our small music microcosm, this may be hard to see, but when a student auditions outside our town and is competing against others who have many more music opportunities available to them, the difference is quite notable to the interview committee or the adjudicator; students who PRACTICE definitely have the edge.

These private lessons are a HUGE factor and since they are not available as part of our public school music program, it is a cost that every music parent faces. So keep practicing! Be the best you can be! This discipline and work ethic will follow you throughout your life and can be applied to any aspect of your life.

Parents, encourage your child through the tough times. Encourage them to try new groups and take on new challenges such as District Auditions. And when it's January, and you're in the car, like me some night—hungry and cold—, may the sound of sweet music fill and warm you.

Food drive for the Wilmington Food Pantry

WILMINGTON - You may be receiving a knock on your front door (or you may have already received one) if you are a Wilmington resident. Members of the Abundant Life Christian Center, located on the town common, are going door-to-door throughout the community asking for donations to the town Food Pantry, starting this past Sunday, October 12th until Saturday, October 25th.

Church members are asking their neighbors to fill a bag with non-perishable groceries that can be dropped off at collection points throughout the town or at the front door of the Abundant Life Church. Volunteers are handing out a shopping bag, donated by Trader Joe's of Burlington, and a flyer describing the need, the food items being collected, and the nearest collection point.

According to Bob DiPalma, director of the Wilmington Food Pantry, the number of families seeking assistance each month is steadily increasing. Approximately sixty families are provided assistance each month. Typically near the end of October and early November the food stocks begin to dwindle prior to the holiday support that comes at the end of November. The Wilmington Food Pantry is volunteer led and operates entirely by private donations.

Ron Grimley, the senior pastor of Abundant Life Christian

Center, states, "This food drive is part of an intentional effort by the church and its members to get involved more directly in serving the local community and helping to meet the needs of local residents. The Food Pantry is an important part of our community that provides assistance to struggling families in Wilmington. We want to assist them in what they do. We will also be working with the Senior Center in a number of different ways during the coming year."

The church is participating in a national spiritual growth campaign called 40 Days of Community pioneered by Saddleback Church in Lake Forest, California. Rick Warren, pastor of the church, wrote the best-selling book, The Purpose Driven Life. The goal of this program is to move people from focusing on God's purposes in their personal lives — "What on Earth am I here for?" — to focusing on God's purposes in their church and community — "What on Earth are we here for?"

"Taking the time to go door-to-door, not trying to sell something, but instead seeking to raise support for the Food Pantry is one way we can serve the community," according to the pastor. "We know the people of Wilmington will want to help out other families in town during these difficult economic times."

Wilmington Cooks

by Paula Murphy

Last week the library was buzzing with patrons talking about the October 25 Fall Apple Festival. The queue around the seven-day "hot titles" table was especially lively, as people conferred about which apples hold up best in baking, and whose recipe was likely to take first place in the apple dessert bake-off contest. Nearly everyone had a sure-fire winner, and those who didn't were crowding the cookbook aisle to find one. The librarians were patiently presiding over the hubbub, smiling, making suggestions, and offering advice. Of course, I had to ask them what they like to cook. Here's what they told me.

Cheesy Potatoes

Gloria Corcoran, Administrative Assistant
Gloria's children enjoy these dinner potatoes so much that when the older ones left home, they took the recipe with them.

1 stick margarine melted in 13 x 9 pan while heating pan

at 350 degrees
1 package frozen hash browns poured over melted butter

Mix together:
1 can creamed chicken soup
1 soup can full sour cream
2 cups shredded cheese
1 teaspoon minced onion (optional)

Spoon over potatoes

Bake 350 degrees for 1 ½ to 2 hours, checking for desired brownness.

Apple Crisp

Charlotte Wood, Assistant Library Director
Charlotte's been making this apple crisp for nearly twenty years. Her family asks for it every fall.

4 cups peeled, cored, and diced tart apples
¾ cups flour
¾ cup packed light brown sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
¼ t salt
½ cup (1 stick) cold butter

Place diced apples in a buttered pan or baking dish.

To make topping, combine flour, sugar, cinnamon, and salt in a mixing bowl. Cut butter into small cubes and add to dry ingredients. Mix until evenly distributed—it will look like course meal.

Sprinkle topping over apples. Bake at 350 degrees until apples test cooked (fork goes through easily) and topping looks crisp, about 35-40 minutes. Serve with vanilla ice cream or whipped cream.

Spinach Pie

Christina Stewart, Library Director

Tina often makes this pie for dinner, but it's an excellent appetizer too.

Phyllo pastry
2 packages fresh spinach
½ pound feta cheese
1 cup cottage cheese
3 eggs
2 onions chopped
1 tablespoon dill weed
Olive oil
Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Lightly oil a 9x 13 inch pan.

Heat 3 tablespoons olive oil in a large skillet over medium heat. Saute onion, until soft and lightly browned. Stir in spinach continue to saute until spinach is limp, about 2 minutes. Remove from heat and set aside to cool. Drain any excess liquid from spinach.

In a medium bowl, mix together eggs, feta and cottage cheese and dill. Stir in spinach mixture. Lay 1 sheet of phyllo dough in prepared baking pan, and brush lightly with olive oil. Lay another sheet of phyllo dough on top, brush with olive oil, and repeat process with 3 or 4 more sheets of phyllo. Spread spinach and cheese mixture into pan. Layer 5 or 6 sheets of phyllo dough on top of mixture, brushing each with oil. Precut the pie into serving pieces before baking. Bake in preheated oven for 30 minutes.

Op-Ed from Middlesex District Attorney Gerry Leone and Boston 10-Point Coalition founder Reverend Jeffrey Brown Re: Question 2

"Question 2: A Dangerous Proposal For Our Kids And Communities"

For the first time in years we have some good news on drugs: Marijuana use among Massachusetts teens has declined significantly since 2001.

It's good news because kids who smoke marijuana are more likely to do poorly in school and engage in violence. It's good news because drivers who've smoked pot are 10 times more likely to be injured, or injure others, in car crashes. It's good news because marijuana is more carcinogenic than tobacco and young people who smoke pot are much more likely to then use other illegal drugs.

Unfortunately, there is a radical effort underway to undo this progress. Question 2 on November's ballot will decriminalize marijuana use and turn possession of an ounce or less of marijuana into a fine similar to a traffic violation. For kids under 21, the penalties will be reduced well below penalties for alcohol possession.

In the weeks ahead, out-of-state proponents of Question 2 will spend a lot of money to support their false claims and misplaced agenda. But at its core, this is an issue of simple common sense - and common sense will lead you to vote against this dangerous proposal.

Common sense tells us that if we decriminalize marijuana, removing the significant deterrent effects and increasing its accessibility, then we will see an increase in its use.

A vote for Question 2 will begin a slippery slope resulting in several negative consequences. It will result in increased addiction, to marijuana and other drugs, as we know that pot is a powerful gateway drug. It will result in increased related crimes, and additional taxpayer costs to combat them, as we know that drugs are the root of much of the violence that erodes our communities. And it will result in increased instances of impaired driving, and the tragic deaths that result from it.

This measure also will result in other unaddressed problems. For instance, there are no regulatory reviews in place to assure that these newly decriminalized drugs are safe, and we know that marijuana is now exponentially more potent than a decade ago. More disturbingly, it does not address the fact that if young people want to buy pot, they will still need to buy it from illegal drug dealers. We can not think of many more dangerous, combustible situations than that.

In short, if this initiative passes, it is a virtual certainty to lead to more drug abuse by our young people, more lives lost, and more crime in our communities. There is no benefit of this measure that outweighs these great costs.

The proponents of Question 2 have two central arguments. First, that existing laws unfairly punish those caught with an ounce or less of marijuana. That is simply untrue. In fact, current law mandates that first time marijuana users receive no more than probation and have their record wiped clean if there are no further violations. Jail is not an option. Wait further proof? In Suffolk and Middlesex Counties last year, there were exactly zero defendants sentenced to jail for first-time marijuana use alone.

Their second claim is that enforcement of marijuana laws leads to expensive police costs. That is also false. A survey of our busiest courts revealed that marijuana prosecutions account for only a tiny fraction of cases, and many of those also involved other violent crimes that so frequently accompany drug abuse. To claim that officers are out trolling the streets for marijuana users, at great cost to taxpayers, is simply not reality.

And despite their best efforts to paint an ounce of marijuana as innocuous, the fact is that one ounce of marijuana is worth about $600 and represents about 60 individual sales.

In communities throughout Massachusetts, law enforcement and neighborhood and faith-based organizations work together to improve public safety. Question 2 is a misguided approach that threatens to derail much of that important work.

We cannot afford to take a step back in our efforts to combat drug addiction and reduce violence in our communities. We can not afford to empower drug dealers and allow more tragic deaths due to impaired driving. And we absolutely can not afford to send mixed messages to our kids about the seriousness and dangers of drug abuse.

For the benefit of our children and our communities, we urge you to vote no on Question 2.

Gerry Leone is the District Attorney of Middlesex County. Reverend Jeffrey Brown is co-founder of Boston Ten Point Coalition.

Job well done

Dear Editor,
I'd like to thank everyone involved that brought The Moving Wall to Wilmington.

The Wilmington Committee deserves a pat on the back, and it's time and effort was #1. Especially welcoming home our hometown heroes.

I'd like to thank the people who move the Wall from town to town, state to state - talk about "remembrance," volunteering, dedication and sacrifice. And, with that, I'd like to thank a few guys I've met: Dave 'Doc' Orndoff

Ritchie Bouchie
Dennis Rooney
Neil Topping
Carl Guarino
Steve Shepardson
Nino Trimarchi
Jackie Baldwin
Larry Topi
Dan MacGinnis
These are the Vietnam Vets who made it home.
Hug them if you see them and tell them "thank you!"

Friendship Lodge announces open house

WILMINGTON - On Saturday, October 18, Friendship Lodge in Wilmington will be holding an open house from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. at their lodge building at 32 Church St.

This unique building was built by Dr. Henry Hiller in 1885 who designed it to resemble a castle, hoping to one day open it as a museum. The building was eventually sold to the original members of Friendship Lodge in 1904 and underwent extensive renovations before reopening as a Masonic Lodge on January 17, 1906.

Today, Friendship Lodge numbers over 175 active members and this year hopes to initiate their one thousandth member into the fraternal order of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons.

The open house is "a great opportunity for anyone interested in learning more about Freemasonry to meet and talk with Masons in their community," said Roger W. Pageau, Grand Master of Masons in Massachusetts and the presiding officer of 40,000 members.

"Although many have heard of us, very few are aware that for 275 years we have been part of an unbroken tradition of great men who have changed our world in ways both big and small. Benjamin Franklin, George Washington, Thurgood Marshall, and John Glenn, for example, all joined the Masons prior to achieving the greatness we recognize them for. There are countless other great men, whose names are not widely known, that made their families, workplaces, and communities better because they were Masons."

Freemasonry traces its roots to the stone mason guilds that built Europe's cathedrals and castles during the first half of the last millennium. As the construction of these buildings declined, the stone masons began accepting members from outside their trade. These new members, influenced by the "Age of Enlightenment," began transforming the organization from what was a precursor to today's unions, into what has become the world's oldest and largest fraternity. In 1717 Freemasonry was formally organized in London, England. The Grand Lodge of Massachusetts was formed in 1733, making it the oldest Grand Lodge in Western Hemisphere and the third oldest in the world. They are celebrating their 275th anniversary this year.

Freemasonry seeks to bring together men of every race, religion, nationality, and opinion and develop the bonds of friendship between them. Through a large variety of North American Masonic philanthropies, more $3,000,000 is provided to charity every day, 70% of which benefits the general public. During its initiation ceremony, which uses symbolism and allegory, its members are encouraged to value principles, ethics, and morality and to live their lives accordingly.

By "making good men better," Freemasonry positively benefits its members, families and communities. The Grand Lodge of Massachusetts includes 40,000 members and more than 235 lodges throughout the Commonwealth. For additional information, please visit friendshipmm.com.

2008 Albert F. Reidy, Jr. Award to Wilmington youth Hockey and Austin Preparatory School

On September 20, 2008, the Board of Directors of Investment In Youth Foundation unanimously voted approval for two Albert F. Reidy, Jr. Awards for 2008.

Wilmington Youth Hockey received a $10,000 Reidy Award and Austin Prep received a $5,000 Reidy Award.

Both of these 501(c) (3) non profit corporations qualified in all areas required in the award proposal.

Investment In Youth Foundation was formerly known as Wilmington Arena Authority Inc. and was the managing entity of Elinor M. Ristuccia Memorial Arena in Wilmington from November, 1986 through May, 2005. During those years, under the direction of Chairman Al Reidy, the Arena was highly respected as a well maintained and well run provider of hockey and figure skating needs for youth ice sports programs.

Due to Al's passing in 2005, the WAA board separated from arena management and changed its title to Investment In Youth Foundation, using a phrase that was incorporated into its logo and which better exemplified the purpose of financial support for youth involvement in ice skating sports.

The board voted unanimously to name each award the Albert F. Reidy Jr. Award in honor of Al for his devotion and commitment to the success of the arena and youth skating programs.

The current board includes Ken DelRossi, John Ritchie, Kevin Creedon, Dennis Sullivan and Joanne McCarthy.

Do you know about the Book Store Next Door?

WILMINGTON - Friends of the Wilmington Memorial Library's used book store, next door to the library, 183 Middlesex Ave., is open Saturdays 10 - 4 a.m. and Sunday mornings 10 - 1 a.m.

If you haven't yet visited, stop by to see what you have been missing.

We've been open a year and a half and folks are still discovering us for the first time. Check out our three rooms' chocked full of book-lovers' bargains: from 3/$1.00 to $5.00, with most books 50-cents to $2.00!

It's getting colder and darker, but the little house, is radiating good will and offering many hours of escape. The children's room has plenty of activity ideas and Hallowe'en books, in addition to books available at all reading levels.

Do you want to try new recipes? New woodworking projects? A new language? New adventure? Browse the non-fiction room for interesting topics, or the fiction room for new or familiar authors.

Remember, the Friends give all profits to the Library; the bookstore relies on volunteers, your donations and your purchases to finance many of the community services the library provides. We also donate to the Troops and children's literacy campaigns.

David Kosta to join season 2 of "Dancing with the Realtors"

David Kosta of RE/MAX Heritage in Wakefield really enjoyed Ballroom dancing classes in college. When he saw the brochure for Season 2 of Dancing with the Realtors®, a fundraising event for "Habitat for Humanity", he thought "what a great opportunity to get back into dancing and help raise money for a great organization".

This organization along with the dynamic professional Realtors® Dancing with the Realtors® was created by Linda Covino; and Season 1 took place in the spring of 2007. The show is based on the ABC hit Dancing with the Stars.

In order to dance in the show, dancers must commit to ten ballroom lessons at Studio 665 in Woburn, where they are currently training. This year, newcomers will be dancing the fox-trot and swing, while returning dancers will be learning the cha-cha and tango. The show, hosted by Sara Edwards of Backstage CN8, will take place at the Burlington Marriott on November 14, 2008. All participants will also have the opportunity to compete in the state finals at the Eastern United States Dancesport Championship at the Boston Park Plaza Hotel on February 20, 2009.

David welcomes your support. If you are interested in attending Dancing with the Realtors® Season 2, sponsoring the event, or donating to Habitat for Humanity through the show, you can contact David at DDDK@aol.com

Dancing with the Realtors® has been established as a statewide event. This year the season will consist of three shows being held locally across the state. For more information and tickets to statewide shows contact Linda Covino at Linda@lindacovino.com. Last year the three events totaled $81,000 to benefit Habitat for Humanity. This year's goal is to raise $100,000.

Tsongas legislation to become law

Tsongas bill to help National Guard and Reserves recruit healthcare professionals included in Bipartisan Defense Authorization Bill

WASHINGTON, DC - A member of the House Armed Services Committee,

Congresswoman Niki Tsongas released the following statement following passage of the National Defense Authorization Act, which authorizes spending limits for the Department of Defense for the coming fiscal year. Included in the bill is bipartisan legislation, H.R. 6018, introduced by Tsongas to help aid the recruitment and retention of skilled healthcare professionals in the National Guard and Reserves. The bill is expected to be approved in the Senate and signed into law by the President in the coming days.

"I recently had the privilege of visiting with members of the Massachusetts National Guard's 126th Medical Corps based in Concord, which provides health care services to Guard members," said Congresswoman Niki Tsongas. "One of the subjects we discussed was the large debt they are forced to take on while in medical or dental school.

"Today, the bipartisan Defense Authorization bill addresses this problem by including legislation I introduced earlier this year that would give flexibility to the Department of Defense to increase the loan repayment amount for medical personnel in the National Guard and Reserve.

"As we continue to ask more and more from our National Guard and Reserves, it is critically important that they have access to the tools that keep their ranks strong and keep our service members safe. The Authorization Act helps accomplish this goal by raising the loan repayment ceiling for benefits available to those doctors, dentists, and other health care professionals currently in the Guard and Reserves, and to those considering such a career, so that they are competitive with similar repayment programs in both the private sector and the active duty military."

"Increasing the Health Professional Loan Repayment ceiling for National Guard and Reserve soldiers to an amount equal to the Active Component of the United States Army enables the Massachusetts National Guard to recruit and retain high quality medical professionals, contribute to the well being of the service men and women who sacrifice on behalf of our country and enable the National Guard to fulfill its mission to serve the people of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts during times of natural disaster or other emergency and to provide ready, well trained professionals to the United States Military," said Major General Joseph C. Carter, Adjutant General of the Massachusetts National Guard.

"While this bill is one way we can better recruit and retain skilled professionals into the National Guard and Reserve, I am pleased that the 2009 National Defense Authorization Act also takes substantial steps towards restoring our military readiness as a whole which has been severely hampered by our continued commitment of troops, equipment, and funding to the war in Iraq, Tsongas continued.

"Army readiness has dropped to unprecedented levels, and Army National Guard units have, on average, only 63 percent of their required equipment. Many stateside units are not fully equipped and would not be considered ready if called upon to respond during an emergency.

"The bill provides substantial funding for the Army's and Marine Corps' equipment requirements, authorizing $8.6 billion for the Army and $1.8 billion for the Marine Corps, as well as authorizing $800 million beyond the President's request to provide the National Guard and Reserve critically needed equipment.

"The bill also takes significant strides to improve the quality of life for our men and women in uniform and their families, and includes a 3.9 percent across-the-board pay increase. It rejects, on a bipartisan basis, proposed increases in TRICARE fees and co-pays.

"Our military personnel and their families make tremendous sacrifices on behalf of our country. This legislation makes significant strides towards honoring that commitment. I am happy to support this bipartisan legislation and look forward to continuing to work with my colleagues on the Armed Services Committee to meet the current and future needs of our military and their families and to keep America strong and secure," Tsongas concluded.

A lasting remembrance

Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage participates in national 10-day sales event

Local sellers reduce home listing prices by 5-10 percent; They join thousands of U.S. home sellers in reducing their listing prices between Oct. 10-19

TEWKSBURY - Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage has announced that it is helping bring home buyers and sellers together in New England by joining a bold national Coldwell Banker® initiative that may help jump-start the U.S. real estate market. On October 10, 2008, the nation's oldest residential real estate brand kicked-off its first-ever national "10-Day Sales Event" - during which participating home sellers from across the United States have reduced the listing prices of their homes by up to 10 percent. The Coldwell Banker 10-Day Sales Event will run nationally through October 19, 2008.

"Here in the communities of Wilmington and Tewksbury, the 10-Day Sales Event is especially timely. Our participating home sellers believe that a home priced properly to sell will generate much more interest," said Michelle Oates, manager of the Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage office in Tewksbury. "We're hearing loud and clear from many of our sellers that they're comfortable with lowering their listing prices if it means getting offers and selling quickly."

In New England, more than 1,000 home sellers are participating in the event.

Oates indicated that 30% of her office's listings have been reduced by 5% or more for the 10-Day Sales Event. "In the towns of Tewksbury and Wilmington alone, 20 of our home sellers are participating with significant price reductions."

"We applaud home sellers for their participation," said Rick Loughlin, president, Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage New England. "Buyers have more homes to choose from and they can take advantage of near historically low interest rates and affordability levels that are the best they have been in years."

"It's our hope that the Coldwell Banker 10-Day Sales Event will move buyers off the sidelines and into the market," said Loughlin. "We are embarking on this initiative - which has never been done before on a national basis - because we believe it is critical for Coldwell Banker, as an industry leader, to help serve the needs of those individuals listing homes with a Coldwell Banker sales associate and to help move the U.S. real estate market in the right direction."

In a recent survey of 3,379 Coldwell Banker real estate professionals in markets across the United States, 56 percent said that listing prices in their market remain above where they need to be to attract qualified buyers. Additional findings from the survey include:

- 77 percent agreed that the majority of sellers in their market still have unrealistic expectations regarding the initial listing price for their homes

- 79 percent agreed that homes in their market that are priced appropriately are attracting more buyers and moving more quickly

- 76 percent believe that a 10 percent or less reduction in listing prices in their area is all it will take to help push these homes over the "tipping point" to a sale

Sellers participating in the 10-

Day Sales Event are receiving added promotional power from the Coldwell Banker brand behind their listing. Participating listings are featured on The Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage Web site NewEnglandMoves.com as well as the brand's flagship Web site coldwellbanker.com. Home sellers will have the option to maintain the reduced listing price for their properties following the 10-Day Sales Event.

Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage is the largest residential real estate brokerage company in New England. Boy Scouts Scott Robinson and Jonathan McKinnon were cooking home made French fries. Along with 35 members of Troop 56 in Wilmington they attended Boy Scouts of America Mass Jam in Falmouth, Ma. this past weekend. The members of Troop 56 were among the 9,000 scouts and leaders who attended the mini jamboree. Mass Jam is only held every five years. Sixteen of the Troop's scouts received the Lord Baden-Powell Award for scouting excellence. Lord Baden-Powell was the founding father of Boy Scouts. Troop 56 is sponsored by the Wilmington Congregation Church.

Are you a mother?

WILMINGTON - Are you a mother? Do you have a mother? Come on down to the Wilmington Memorial Library conference room on Wednesday, October 22, at 7:00 a.m. for a showing of "The Motherhood Manifesto Movie" from Moms Rising - a growing advocacy group of 150,000 citizen members! Started in May 2006, the goal of Moms Rising is to bring important motherhood and family issues to the forefront and to create both cultural and legislative change. Although 75% of American mothers are now in the labor force, Moms Rising believes that the United States government is stuck in a 1950's mentality, which assumes that each household has a full-time wife at home taking care of the children. It is time for legislative policies and workplaces to match the dynamics of the modern American family. The priority of Moms Rising is to advocate policies that will strengthen families and also to provide support for women working in the home raising children.

Lisa A. Brothers, PE, named Woman of the Year by the Boston Chapter of the Women's Transportation Seminar

Boston - Lisa A. Brothers, PE, Vice President and COO of Nitsch Engineering, was named 2008 Woman of the Year by the Boston Chapter of the Women's Transportation Seminar (WTS-Boston). The award recognizes a member of WTS-Boston who is a leader in the transportation industry and has advanced the reputation and credibility of women and minorities within the industry through her career achievements.

"Lisa has made tremendous contributions, not only to WTS, but to the transportation profession as a whole," said Luisa Paiewonsky, Commissioner of the Massachusetts Highway Department and Immediate Past President of WTS-Boston. "She has mentored many young professionals entering the field, and is widely respected for her smart and effective leadership."

An owner of Nitsch Engineering, Lisa holds a BSCE from the University of Massachusetts Lowell, an MBA from Northeastern University, and is a 2004 graduate of ACEC National's Senior Executive Institute. She is a registered professional engineer with over 24 years of experience, and is involved in a wide range of professional activities. Lisa is the Past President of WTS-Boston and is on their Advisory Board. She is the Senior Vice President for the American Council of Engineering Companies/Massachusetts (ACEC/MA) and serves on their Membership Committee and Government Affairs Committee. Lisa chairs the College of Engineering/Industrial Advisory Board at UMass Lowell, where she is the youngest and only woman member. She is also a member of UMass Lowell's Center for Women and Work Advisory Board. Lisa was co-chair of the Transportation and Construction Committee for the Massachusetts Government Appointments Project (MassGAP) in 2006. Lisa was an appointed member of the Town of Wilmington Conservation Commission (1995-2005) and was an Overseer for the Boston Architectural College (2005 to 2008). She is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE) and the Society of Women Engineers (SWE).

Her contributions to her community have been recognized by a range of organizations. The Boston Society of Civil Engineers presented Lisa with its 2004 Citizen Engineer Award. In 2003, UMass Lowell recognized her contributions and presented her with the Francis Academy Distinguished Engineering Alumni Award. She was honored with a 2002 Pinnacle Award as an Emerging Executive by the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce. In 2001, Lisa received the BSCES Lester Gaynor Award in recognition of her exemplary service as a public official in Wilmington, Massachusetts.

About WTS-Boston
Originally founded in 1980 by a group of twenty women in the transportation industry, the Greater Boston Women's Transportation Group (GBWTG) grew to 138 members within one year. In April 1981, impressed by the national organization, Women's Transportation Seminar (WTS), the Steering Committee unanimously recommended that GBWTG join WTS. Since then, WTS-Boston has grown into one of the most influential transportation organizations in Boston.

About Nitsch Engineering
Nitsch Engineering (www.nitscheng.com) is a civil engineering, land surveying, transportation engineering, sustainable consulting, planning, and GIS firm that provides services on private development, public building, and infrastructure projects. Nitsch Engineering has projects in 15 states and five countries. The firm is the largest Women-owned Business Enterprise (WBE) civil engineering firm in Massachusetts, and is also a certified WBE in New York, Virginia, and Pennsylvania. In the 19 years since its founding, Nitsch Engineering has provided professional services to public agencies, academic clients, developers, corporate and institutional owners, architects, and other design professionals on a variety of project types.

Winchester Hospital presents Free lecture on breast cancer

WINCHESTER - According to the American Cancer Society, breast cancer is the most common cancer and the second leading cause of cancer death (after lung cancer) in women in the United States. Although an estimated 182,460 women will be diagnosed with invasive breast cancer in 2008, death rates are declining - probably as a result of early detection and improved treatment.

The American Cancer Society recommends an annual mammogram plus a magnetic resonance imaging (MRI) scan for women at increased risk of developing breast cancer. Risk factors are determined, in part, through family medical history and blood tests that detect known cancer genes.

According to Dr. Delphine Lui, associate medical imaging director of the Winchester Hospital Breast Care Center, the combination is important because each procedure is ideally suited for a different patient population. For the earliest detection, women should perform a monthly breast self-exam in addition to undergoing an annual clinical breast exam. "The key message for women is the importance of making regular screenings for breast cancer an important part of your overall health plan," said Dr. Lui.

In recognition of National Mammography Day and National Breast Cancer Awareness Month in October, Winchester Hospital surgeon Kelley Cornell, MD will present the free lecture "Reducing Your Risk of Breast Cancer Through a Healthier Lifestyle" on Friday, Oct. 24, 12-1 p.m., in the first floor Keating Conference Room of Baldwin Park I, 12

Alfred St. in Woburn. A boxed lunch will be served.

"Diet and exercise are important for all individuals, but particularly for our patients," said Dr. Cornell, associate medical clinical director of the Winchester Hospital Breast Care Center. "Proper nutrients can help keep your body strong when you are recovering from treatment."

Winchester Hospital offers a full range of services to diagnose, treat and care for patients with cancer. The commitment to women's health care extends beyond its recognized obstetric service with the Winchester Hospital Breast Care Center in Woburn, a regional center that offers comprehensive breast health resources that include genetic testing, digital mammography, stereotactic and ultrasound breast biopsy, magnetic resonance imaging (MRI) and on-site, MRI-guided breast biopsy capabilities. Last year, the Breast Care Center's highly skilled group of caregivers provided more than 35,000 procedures to patients from Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Rhode Island.

Additionally, Winchester Hospital offers many support groups and services to aid cancer patients and their families during and following treatment, including a full-time social worker to assist in navigating the treatment process; the administration of radiation therapy, infusion therapy and chemotherapy; blood and platelet transfusions; education and preventative services; nutrition consultations; integrative therapies including acupuncture, hypnotherapy, massage, Reiki and yoga; A boutique offering prostheses, head coverings and clothing with personalized fittings; a child life specialist for children with a parent receiving treatment; referrals to clinical trials when medically appropriate; pastoral care; and a compassionate environment that welcomes family members, friends and other meaningful members of patients' support teams.

To RSVP for the free lecture "Reducing Your Risk of Breast Cancer Through a Healthier Lifestyle," call (781) 756-4740 by Oct. 21. To schedule a screening mammogram, call Winchester Hospital Central Scheduling at (781) 756-2211.

Tewksbury Library Notes

by Jen Hinderer

Help your library "go green": sign up for email services at YOUR library!

As part of our ongoing efforts to save money and reduce our paper consumption we have expanded our email services and we need your help. Give us your email address today to start participating in our online services. We will never share your email address with any other business or organization, but we will keep you informed about your library account, new and recommended books and library activities and events.

Our most used electronic service is email notification when something is overdue or an item you've requested has arrived: more efficient than a phone call or mailed notice it also saves the library thousands of dollars and reduces our paper consumption. Our first cost cutting measure this fall was ceasing the mailing of "first" overdue notices, saving up to 20 sheets of paper, envelopes and stamps per day.

Looking for something good to read? Interested in our newest and best books? Use your email address to subscribe to "Book News," a monthly bulletin of new releases or older titles you may have missed. Reading recommendations are available for 20 categories, including Bestselling fiction, Mysteries, Christian Fiction, Sci-Fi and more. Instead of printed lists that are out of date every few weeks, these electronic newsletters keep you informed and save us reams of paper.

Visit our website to subscribe to email bulletins of adult, teen and children's events: you are automatically signed up for these when you register for a program online using our new interactive calendar. Our online event calendar also offers other email services as well: reminders of events you've registered for and the "tell a friend" feature.

Interested in learning more? Visit us online at www.tewksburypl.org or stop in anytime and speak to a library staff member.

Other "Green" opportunities at your library:

Recycle your paper: Use one of our two "Paper Retriever" bins in the parking lot to dispose of junk mail, catalogs, phone books and other paper: proceeds from this effort benefit our Friends of the Library.

Donate books: Bring us your "gently read" books to sort and resell in the Friends Book shop. Visit the Recycling Committee's "Information Station" in the lobby of the library and learn more about recycling here in Tewksbury.

Use our services: Even borrowing materials from the library instead of buying them saves both money and the environment. Think of how much paper and ink can be saved just by canceling one magazine subscription and borrowing it from the library instead, or by reading your daily newspaper here.

Upcoming October events for adults:

Do You Believe in Ghosts and Witches?

The Tewksbury Public Library at 300 Chandler Street will be hosting two spooky events in the coming weeks. Monday, October 27th at 6:30 PM, Jeff Belanger will present "Legends of the Supernatural." Jeff Belanger is one of the leading lecturers on paranormal phenomena. He brings a suitcase full of evidence and a lot of personality to the subject of the supernatural, making this entertaining and accessible to a wide audience. In 1999, Jeff Belanger launched Ghost Village as a repository for his writings on the supernatural and his collection of true ghost stories. Since then, the site has grown to become the Web's largest supernatural community receiving more than three million hits per month with thousands of subscribers from all over the world. In August of 2004, Belanger's first book, "The World's Most Haunted Places: From the Secret Files of Ghostville.com," was published by New Page Books and in 2008 he published "Weird Massachusetts: Your Travel Guide to the Bay State's Local Legends and Best Kept Secrets." Jeff has written over 8 books, has been on countless radio and television programs discussing the supernatural, and has lectured at many conferences, libraries, and other functions around the United States.

To add to our scary round-up, Tewksbury Public Library will be hosting David Goss, author and Assistant Professor of History at Gordon College, on Saturday, October 25th at 2:00 PM. David Goss will read excerpts from his newly published book, The Salem Witch Trials: A Reference Guide, which is a unique glimpse into the 17th century politics, religious culture, and gender issues that created the Salem witchcraft episode. Copies of his book will be available for sale and signing.

Both events are free & open to the public. For more information please visit our website www.tewksburypl.org or call Freya Sanger at (978) 640-4490 ext. 207.

Apple Cider Press Demonstration and more at Apple Festival October 25

Scott Crispin, a Wilmington resident, will be on hand at that the Fall Apple Festival on Saturday October 25 to demonstrate how apple cider is made. The demonstration will take place under the library's front portico from 12 noon to 2 pm. Don't forget to stop by the Children's Room for an apple craft (all day) and face painting (12 noon to 2 pm) in the conference room. Test your knowledge of apples by answering some apple trivia questions at Johnny Appleseed's desk on the first floor of the library (10 am to 2pm). You may win a fine free coupon! Check out all the Apple Festival events at www.wilmlibrary.org.

Sunday Hours at the Book Store Next Door

If you are too busy with soccer games, football or errands to shop at the Friends of the Library Book Store Next Door on Saturday (10 am to 4 pm), you now have the opportunity to also shop on Sunday from 10 am to 1 pm. So take some time to check the latest offerings at Wilmington's unique used book store located at 183 Middlesex Avenue. If you are interested in joining the Friends of the Library, Friends' President Robert Hayes is available at the book store on Sundays to answer your questions.

Money Matters Series

The library will host three programs designed to present financial planning information in a simple and non-sales format. Whether you're just starting out or have been working for a number of years, these programs will provide helpful tips for wise investment. Please register at www.wilmlibrary.org on the "Calendar of Events" or call the library at 978-694-2098.

The Nest Egg

Wednesday, October 29, 7 pm. Barbara Nevils, certified financial planner and owner of Nevils Financial, LLC, will present an overview on how to set up a portfolio "nest egg" for your retirement years.

Investment Basics

Wednesday, November 5, 7 pm. Rishi Sondhi, an MBA candidate at Babson College, and a "student of Warren Buffett's and Ben Graham's school of value investing," will present the basics of investing including the concepts of compounding effect and asset allocation.

Estate Planning

Thursday, November 13, 7 pm. Dan Caplinger, a financial planner who currently writes articles on personal finance for the Motley Fool, an Internet-based financial website, will present the basics of estate planning.

Downloadable Audio Books

The Wilmington Library continues to offer access to OverDrive, an online library of downloadable audio books. Using the OverDrive website you can check out and download audio books to your MP3 player; some titles can even be burned onto CDs for listening on-the-go. New titles are constantly being added. Recent purchases include: Tribute by Nora Roberts, Know Your Power by Nancy Pelosi, The Presence by John Saul, The Genius by Jesse Kellerman, The Power of Intention by Dr. Wayne Dyer, and many more! Go to www.wilmlibrary.org and click on the Audio Books Downloads box (found on the left near the bottom of the page) to hear them today!

Upcoming Children's Programs

Sparky's Puppets Presents Harvest Tales (and the Baldwin Apple Story)
Program: Saturday, October 25, 10 am

Celebrate fall as Sparky's Puppets perform Harvest Tales on Saturday, October 25th at 10 am. See a special skit about the discovery of the Baldwin apple, an important part of Wilmington's history. Then, watch Brer Rabbit sneak into the vegetable garden to steal a prize-winning pumpkin. And find out what happens when a pesky goblin tries to outsmart a hard-working farmer in a trickster tale called "Tops and Bottoms." Sparky's Puppets dramatize favorite children's stories with colorful hand puppets, lively humor and plenty of audience participation. They have performed for children and family audiences throughout New England for over 30 years. All ages are invited to drop-in for the event, which is part of the day-long Apple Festival celebrating Wilmington's Baldwin apple. Sponsored by the Friends of the Library.

Halloween Fun

Tickets Available Beginning Thursday, October 16
Program: Thursday, October 23, 7 pm

Celebrate the spooky season with Jeanniemack, when she brings Halloween howls to the library with a show of participatory Halloween songs, riddles, tongue twisters, rhymes, ghastly poems and a Halloween tale with eerie sound effects. The family show is recommended for those aged four and older. Tickets may be reserved by visiting or calling the Children's Room at (978) 694-2098 beginning on Thursday, October 16.

Funded by the Friends of the Library.

Story Time Registration Begins Monday, October 20

Introduce your young child to books, flannel board stories, songs, circle games and finger plays. Registration for the following programs may be made in person by visiting the Children's Room or by calling (978) 694-2098.

Baby Times

A program most appropriate for the early walker with caregiver to be held on Thursdays, November 6, 20 and December 11 at 10:30-11 am.

Time for Twos

There will be no Story Times on Tuesday, November 11 (Veterans' Day), Thursday, November 27 (Thanksgiving), Friday, November 28, or when Wilmington Public Schools are closed due to inclement weather.

Book Discussion for Ages 9 & Older

Friday, October 17, 2008, 3:30 pm

Greg Heffley and his older brother Rodrick are back in this bestselling sequel to Diary of a Wimpy Kid: Greg Heffley's Journal by Jeff Kinney. In Diary of a Wimpy Kid: Rodrick Rules, Greg chronicles the escapades of summer vacation and his attempts to steer clear of trouble when he returns to middle school and tries to keep his older brother Rodrick from telling everyone about Greg's most humiliating experience of the summer. Drop-in for a lively discussion of Greg's hilarious journal of writings and cartoons. A door prize and dessert will be provided by the Friends of the Library.

Ahura Scientific announces new European partners

WILMINGTON - Ahura Scientific, Inc., a leader in rugged, ultra-compact instruments for chemical identification, announced today it is expanding its presence in Europe with three new distribution partners - Nucletron Technologies GmbH in Germany and Austria, HazmatLINK in the United Kingdom and Benelux, and RMI in the Czech and Slovak Republics.

Ahura Scientific chose to work with these companies based on their demonstrated success in serving their respective European markets. The company's new partners have a strong understanding of the field-deployed chemical identification solutions sought by first responders and security personnel in their markets, which include commercial entities, government agencies and the military. The three distributors offer the company's safety and security solutions - First Defender® & TruDefender™ FT.

Earlier this month, Ahura Scientific also announced that it has entered new markets in China through the use of its FirstDefender solution during the Summer Olympics and its donation of products following the Sichuan Province earthquake. These activities, coupled with the company's recent exhibition at Analytica in Shanghai, further demonstrate the increasing demand for Ahura Scientific's chemical identification products around the world.

"With a legacy that spans more than five decades, we've developed a strong technical expertise within the German and Austrian markets, which gives us a solid understanding of what new technologies will have the greatest impact on and relevance to our region," said Siegfried Leiss of Nucletron Technologies. "We took our time looking for another technology for our customers and we're thrilled to partner with a company like Ahura Scientific that is so truly focused on innovation and technological excellence."

"Chemical threats are a growing problem facing every country in the world, so it's imperative to provide access to solutions for post-incident response and the prevention of potential attacks," said Doug Kahn, chairman and CEO of Ahura Scientific. "We have selected Nucletron, HazmatLINK and RMI based on their ability to provide the kind of high-caliber technical insight and customer support that AS is committed to delivering worldwide."

FirstDefender, their flagship Raman instrument, is currently used by state, local, and foreign government agencies as well as civilian and military organizations worldwide. It was built to military ruggedness specifications and provides exceptional accuracy and ease of use. To support their global customer base, FirstDefender and all documentation are localized in Chinese, French, German, Japanese and Spanish.

In addition, the company's TruDefender FT, a complementary FTIR instrument, is built for use in a variety of emergency scenarios, including hazardous spills or any situation where unknown substances need to be quickly identified. With its rugged, ergonomic, and user-friendly design and rapid response time, TruDefender FT delivers the critical answers emergency personnel need, where and when they need them.

When used alone, each instrument can rapidly provide the analysis results needed to evaluate and identify unknown substances for safe remediation. When used together, TruDefender FT and FirstDefender can serve as confirmatory techniques and provide a more comprehensive assessment of a given scenario for greater confidence in response.

Ahura Scientific will be exhibiting from Hall #7, Stand #329 at the Security-Essen show, taking place at the Messe Essen Trade Fair Ground in Essen, Germany, from October 7-10. To request a meeting at the show, please contact sales@ahurascientific.com.

Ahura Scientific, Inc. is a leading provider of a new class of ultra-compact analytical instruments. These rugged handheld instruments are used for real-time identification of chemical substances. Customers include government agencies and companies in the safety and security, pharmaceutical, and consumer products markets. Manufactured in the USA in an ISO 9001-certified facility, the company's products offer exceptional portability and performance. For more information, visit www.ahurascientific.com.

HazmatLINK was established in 2004 to provide innovative solutions for the hazardous materials management and emergency response markets. The company assists customers in their management of and response to hazardous materials, and consults with the emergency services and government sectors on planning and managing for incidents involving hazardous materials throughout the United Kingdom and Benelux. For more information, visit www.hazmatlink.com.

RMI has more than 15 years of experience working with applications for spectroscopy techniques in both research and industry, including techniques of elemental analysis (AAS, ICP-MS, XRF and LIBS) and molecular spectroscopy (Raman, FTIR, NIR and Mass Spectroscopy). Based in the Czech Republic, RMI distributes hazmat solutions throughout Central Europe for field applications that identify and quantify hazardous substances, wastes, explosives, narcotics, and warfare materials. The company is focused on transferring its customers' experience from laboratories to "in field" applications. For more information, visit www.rmi.cz.

For more than 50 years, Nucletron Technologies GmbH has been the leading source for high tech systems and components in Germany and Austria. The company specializes in introducing new, pioneering technologies to a market that has never before seen such solutions - such as Iris scan systems and handheld IR cameras - and focuses on partnering with leading-edge technology manufacturers. For more information, visit www.nucletron.de.

FirstDefender XL is the only light-weight, rugged instrument for in-the-field identification of unknown solids, liquids and mixtures by first responders and homeland security personnel.

Celebrating a full century

her independence.

Tammik said one of her Aunt Mary's favorite things is to sing. "She sings at all birthdays, holidays; basically at any chance she can get," said Tammik. "She even sang at her three of her nieces' weddings. On Tuesday she left Wilmington Woods long enough to attend a birthday celebration at the weekly AIM meeting where she sang for the gathered crowd."

DiGirolamo embraced her Italian heritage through both using the language and in food preparation. In lieu of packaged pasta Mary makes her own for such dishes as ravioli, dumplings and lasagna as well as spaghetti and macaroni.

Every year for the last 25 years or so, the family gathers on Good Friday for a tradition of all baking Pizzagaina together (Pizzagaina is an Italian pie, filled with Italian meats and cheeses purchased by the family at a deli in the North End). It started a long time ago at the home of DiGirolamo's great niece, Carol Russo. As the number of family and friends quickly grew, they outgrew that space and now they all meet at the Masonic Hall where they spend the night rolling dough and catching up with everyone. Tammik said, "It's a great night, and Mary really enjoys it."

DiGirolamo witnessed many historic events during the last 100 years, but several fall very close to the hearts of Massachusetts sports fans. Mary is a big Red Sox fan. She was very excited to be one of a small group of people that were able to see the Sox win back in 1918 and then again in 2004, and 2007. She was very happy to see that the curse was reversed in her lifetime! Other things that she talks about are just how much technology has changed. Tammik said cell phones and computers amaze her aunt, and that she has even said, "car starters blow my mind!"

DiGirolamo was also very excited when she was able to vote for a woman at the last election. Tammik said, "For her, growing up at a time when women were not even allowed to vote, and to now be able to not only vote, but vote for a woman was truly an amazing moment for her."

"My Aunt Mary is a wonderful woman, who has seen so much over her 100 years. She has met many great friends throughout her lifetime. And although she doesn't always remember their names, they were always special to her."

Tammik tells a story that she said describes her aunt. "Just the other day, I was talking to my cousin, Emily Pratt. She is very close to Mary and visits her often... They were having a visit. It was a little chilly and Aunt Mary had asked Emily for the afghan. Emily commented on what a beautiful blanket it is, and asked her who made it. Aunt Mary said, 'a very good friend of mine. I don't remember who, but it was a very good friend of mine.' That is just who she is."

As far as her thoughts about turning 100, Tammik said her aunt has not said much about it except to say that it will be a special day, and that God has blessed her with a great life and great friends and family.

The family will host a party for DiGirolamo on October 23 from 6:30-8:30 p.m. at Wilmington Woods, and they invite the Town of Wilmington and all of Mary's friends. All are welcome.

tioned or raffled off at charity events such as golf tournaments.

"They've been so good," Cimaglia said. "We have fundraisers every three or four months and the items that the Shawsheen Tech students contribute are such a big help."

Each and every box mailed through Local Heroes is to an individual soldier and the Wilmington group has received plenty of feedback from grateful troops.

"Some guys on leave come by [and thank us]," Cimaglia said. "We have four scrapbooks full of pictures."

In all, Local Heroes has mailed 7,436 packages to young men and women fighting for the United States in the war. The plan? To keep sending items until everybody comes home.

"There has been a nice outpouring of people that respect and appreciate what we're doing," said Nickerson.

"The support has been quite humbling," Cimaglia added.

People interested in assisting Local Heroes have several options to help chip in.

Monetary donations can be made to the group, an official non-profit organization (www.mass-localheroes.org), by sending checks to Local Heroes, PO Box 536, Wilmington, 01887 or simply visit the Knights of Columbus on any Wednesday night. Without question, someone will be there to greet you.

"I remember that first night, we sent out 12 boxes and I said to my wife 'I can't believe we're sending 12 boxes.' We were so excited," Cimaglia recalled with a laugh. "We haven't sent 12 since."

Charles Lyons Superintendent-Director of Shawsheen Valley Technical High School sums up the project best by saying, "The Lion in the Wizard of Oz taught us that a 'heart is not measured by how much you love, but by how much you are loved by others.' Our heroes in the theatre of war are deeply appreciated by the love of patriotism exhibited by our students and employees. I am deeply proud of the work they do letting our troops know how much we appreciate their sacrifice."

Stewart leads the incredible last minute scoring drive

By JAMIE POTE
Sports Editor

Statistically it's pretty impressive what Steve Stewart did on Friday night. But what he accomplished in the team's final drive of the game is what always makes stats unimportant when it comes to team sports.

Trailing 15-14 with 1:49 to go in the game, Stewart marched his Wildcat team right down the field, getting help from so many different teammates. Stewart helped put together a 13-play, 78-yard scoring drive, capped off by his 1-yard QB run with 17 seconds left in the game, to help lift the Wildcats past a very solid and respectable Hamilton-Wenham team, 20-15, in front of a big and loud crowd at Alumni Stadium.

During that 13-play drive, Stewart completed 3-of-5 passes, and he also took the ball six times on QB draws or broken plays. After teammate Anthony Nihan went 13 yards to the Generals' 14 yard line giving Wilmington a huge first down with 36 seconds to go, Stewart took the ball the final four plays, combining for 14 yards, including that touchdown run, thanks in part to Nihan who shoved the QB into the end zone in a huge pile up.

"Our backs were against the wall, and we're fighters," said Stewart. "We knew that once we got the momentum again, no one would stop us."

Stewart began the offensive series with a short 12-yard kick-off return, after he saw Hamilton-Wenham's quarterback Andy Duval score a touchdown and complete a pass for the two-point conversion giving the Generals a 15-14 lead with 1:49 to go. After that kick-off return put the ball on the Wildcat 32, Stewart went to work. He immediately hit Scott Bonica for a short three-yard completion. Two plays later, Stewart went for five yards, before Nihan added six on a huge fourth down play. Four plays later, Stewart went back to Bonica for a five yard pass, moving the ball to the HW 32 and getting out of bounds to stop the clock with 45 seconds left. It was Bonica, who dropped a touchdown pass late in the second quarter when the 'Cats had a 14-0 lead.

"(Bonica) was pretty bummed out about that," said Stewart. "But he came back, and that's what good players do, to come back after a let down and he came back huge, especially that one over there where he got out of bounds, so he played great."

Nihan then followed with another huge run, going 13 yards up the middle, putting the ball on the HW 14 with 36 seconds left.

"There were a couple of broken plays, and a couple QB draws, but Nihan was huge," said Stewart. "Anytime we could pound it up the gut, he was there and was great with that, and that helped us open up the outside."

All in all, Stewart rushed the ball 22 times (which includes his five quarterback sacks) for 95 yards and scored the game-winning touchdown. He also completed 12-of-18 passes for 115 yards, not to mention adding 57 yards in kick-off returns, and playing every down on defense.

"We expect him to play well every night," said head coach Mike Barry. "But obviously when you lead the team down the field in the last (1:49), it's a great effort by the quarterback."

Besides his ability to get out of the pocket and scramble for yards and first downs, Barry said Stewart is very valuable in other areas.

"Stew's also real good at communicating," said Barry. "He sees what's there and he gives you good suggestions. Often times when kids are on the field, you try to find kids who you can trust because some kids get carried away with everything and they want the ball, and they want it for the sake of wanting it, not because they see something there. And Stew's really good about making good suggestions."

He made one other suggestion to his teammates as they entered the huddle with 1:49 left on the clock, and down by a point.

"I told (the rest of the guys) that we had plenty of time and just to take a deep breath, and let's go out and get this one," said Stewart.

Indeed they did - all in a short amount of time of 1:49.

"I knew we had the timeouts, so that really wasn't a problem," said Stewart. "We knew we had (1:49 left when the drive started) and that's plenty of time to go down and score. And once we got the momentum, no one was stopping us. I'm glad we got the win."

Wildcats win with 12 seconds left

What a thrilling comeback!

By JAMIE POTE
Sports Editor

There have been plenty of come from behind victories over the years. There have been plenty of huge games decided in the fourth quarter over the years. Friday night's thriller probably doesn't come close to the road win against North Andover back in 2004, but the 20-15 victory certainly is one to remember. And it's certainly one that head coach Mike Barry and quarterback Steve Stewart will remember for quite some time.

The Wildcats were holding on to a 14-7 lead with 4:52 left in the game. Hamilton-Wenham (3-2) marched the ball right down the field, scoring a touchdown on a crucial fourth-and-four from the 9 on a quarterback keeper rush by Andy Duval, his second score of the day. The touchdown made the score, 14-13, and the Generals elected to try for the two-point conversion. Somehow, much like Eli Manning against the Patriots in the Super Bowl, Duval eluded a handful of Wildcat defenders, and found a wide-open Corey Daff, a 6-foot-3, 235-pound receiver open in the end zone, making it 15-14 in favor of Hamilton-Wenham with 1:49 left in the game.

Now Wilmington needed to come up with a late minute plan to win the game.

"We weren't protecting very well, so we didn't to go long down the field," said Barry, who watched his team remain perfect at 5-0. "We figured to use the short passes and manage the clock. If we needed to take a shot long, we would but we really wanted to just get into field goal range because Stewart can hit one from about 30 (yards out)."

Stewart was everywhere on this last drive. He returned the kick-off 12 yards to the 32, and with 1:43 left in the game, he had some work to do. Two plays after his short return, he went five yards on a roll out to his left for a first down. Three plays later facing third-and-short, Stewart (22 rushes for 95 yards) went 16 yards up the middle on a broken play, getting another huge first down and moving the ball to the Generals' 32 yard line with 58 seconds to go.

"We busted a bunch of longer runs, so now I needed to make a decision to either go for it, or kick it, and the kids wanted to go for it," said Barry. "I didn't want them to get caught up in the emotion, but they were pretty jacked up. We were doing a good job on all of the short stuff, like the fourth-and-threes, so we went for it because I figured we still had enough time (for the field goal) if we didn't score (the touchdown)."

Stewart (12-for-18 passing for 115 yards) then hit Scott Bonica (5 receptions for 33 yards) with a 5-yard pass, before fullback Anthony Nihan (7 carries for 52 yards) went 13 yards, moving the ball to the 14 yard line with 36 seconds to go. From there it was all Stewart. He took the ball each of the next three plays for two, six and five yards, putting the ball on the 1-yard line with 17 seconds left. That's when Stewart's number was called again, and with a great push in his back by Nihan, Stewart stood tall going to his left, going past the goal line for the game winning touchdown with 12 seconds left on the clock.

"I know last year we won a few games late, similar to this," said Barry. "I didn't think we would panic. In high school, if you have the ball with 1:14 or 1:20 to go with four timeouts, you can move the ball. The whole time I was just thinking field goal, until we got it down there (into Hamilton-Wenham's territory). Then when we got it close, we said 'let's go'. There wasn't a lot of panic and that's a credit to the kids. I think this is where they feel the most comfortable."

Wilmington looked too comfortable after demoralizing Hamilton-Wenham in the first quarter. Evan Butters (14 carries for 102 yards and two touchdowns) scored on a 58-yard sweep moving to his left on the second play from scrimmage to help Wilmington take a 7-0 lead (after Stewart's PAT kick was good) just 48 seconds into the game. Chris Cazeau recovered a HW fumble, and that helped to lead Butters to his second touchdown of the first quarter, this one on a 1-yard run capping a 7-play, 55-yard drive.

Hamilton-Wenham squandered several big chances to get on the

Wins keep piling up on the soccer fields

"He's becoming a huge weapon," said Scanlon. "We were at Manchester on that little field and everytime Mike was throwing it, he was putting in right in on the six-yard box. And we have some height there with Spurr and Godzyk and (Jacob) Briere are crafty in the air, and if you keep doing that, it causes errors by the other teams which creates opportunities and rebounds for us. We actually run three different plays off his throws. He has five assists this season and they are all from his throws. The thing is he doesn't start so when he comes in the 17th minute, other teams don't see it and it really surprises them to see him throw one 45 to 50 yards in the Wilmington returns home on Thursday afternoon to face Rockport at the North Intermediate School at 3:45, before facing Billerica, Saturday night at 6:00 pm at their place. The Indians just crushed Tewksbury, 7-0, on Tuesday afternoon in a game that determined the Merrimack Valley Conference Division 2 title with the Redmen.

The Wildcat girls' soccer team picked up two more victories this past week, pushing the team past the .500 mark. Wilmington knocked off Manchester-Essex, 5-0, at home on Friday, before topping Pentucket Regional, 3-1, at Alumni Stadium on Tuesday night. The two victories pushes the team's overall record to 6-4.

Wilmington took a 1-0 lead in the fifth minute of the game. Senior forward Colleen Kennedy made a gorgeous cross pass from the right wing Wilmington is back in action with a road trip to Rockport (2-11-0) on Thursday, and then coming home to face Georgetown (6-4-2) on Monday at the Shawheens School beginning at 3:45 pm. Wilmington and Georgetown played to a scoreless tie back in the second week of the season.

The Wildcats did get some strong performances on the day, and their point total of 125 was actually a very respectable score. Senior captain Mike Chiracosta led the way for the board, missing a 26-yard field goal early in the second quarter, before finally getting in the end zone on a 9-yard keeper run by Duval, which finished a 9-play, 81-yard drive coming with 1:05 left in the second quarter.

Hamilton-Wenham opened the third quarter with another long drive but turned the ball over when Ryan Searles made a nice leaping interception. The Wildcats answered with a long drive of their own moving the ball to the HW 35, but Stewart was sacked on third down, forcing Wilmington to punt for the first time in the game just seconds into the fourth quarter.

Both teams failed to score on their next possessions, which set up Duval's second touchdown run, and the two-point conversion helping HW take a lead for just 1:37.

All in all, Wilmington managed 375 total yards of offense, including 260 on the ground led by Butters, Stewart and Nihan, who combined for all but one of the yards (which includes Stewart's five sacks/tackles for a loss for a combined 28 yards), while receivers Scott Bonica and Mike Manganelli came up huge with 11 combined catches.

Wilmington is now on the road for its next two games, as the team enters its league schedule with the next five games against Cape Ann League Large School opponents. This Friday, the 'Cats will travel to Lawrence Stadium to take on the 2-3 Lancers. Thus far Lawrence has defeated Malden (13-7) and Newburyport (37-23), while falling to Central Catholic (28-14), Amesbury (27-7) and Masconomet (42-15).

After the contest with Lawrence, Wilmington will go to Pentucket Regional (4-1) on the 25th, before coming home against Masco (3-3) on the 31st and North Andover (2-3) on November 7th, before completing its league schedule at home against Triton Regional (2-2) on November 14th.

Rams Football team walks all over Mystic Valley

By MIKE IPPOLITO
Sports Correspondent

BILLERICA - Shawsheen coach Al Costabile admitted his team had been through a rough week of practice heading into last Saturday's game with CAC Lower Division rival Mystic Valley. The Upper Division Rams after all were coming off a brutal 34-0 loss the week before to another Lower Division foe in Manchester-Essex, so their confidence level may not have been at an all time high.

"It was tough at the start. It was tough getting going," Costabile said. "We got taken out to the wood shed last week so we had to bounce back from it."

The Shawsheen players, however, regrouped and refocused as the week went on and by the time Saturday afternoon rolled around the Rams were ready for redemption and they got it with a 32-6 rout of Mystic Valley at Cassidy Field. The Rams scored on three straight possessions in the first half of the game to take a 24-0 halftime lead and never looked back after extending the lead to 32-0 early in the third quarter.

Junior quarterback Kevin White of Tewksbury led the way for the Rams through the air, completing 7-of-9 passes for 145 yards and a pair of touchdowns, while junior Cory Foss led the way on the ground with 82 yards rushing and a touchdown on just nine carries.

The Shawsheen defense was outstanding as well, holding

Mystic Valley to one first down until their final possession of the game, and holding them to 38 yards of total offense before a couple of big plays in the closing minutes.

"It was a complete team effort," Costabile said. "We ran the ball well, threw the ball well and played well defensively."

Things did not start off well for the Rams, who fumbled on their first possession of the game. For the briefest of moments, players must have had visions of another rough outing, but the Rams defense did not allow that feeling to last long, holding the Eagles to a three and out Shaun Miller returned a punt 33 yards to give the Rams great field position at the Mystic Valley 42 yard line.

It took the Rams only five plays to take advantage of Miller's great return. They took the lead on a three yard run up the middle by Foss with 2:26 left in the first quarter. White was 2-for-2 on the drive, including a 27 yard completion to Mike Allen. White also connected with Allen in the corner of the end zone for the two point conversion and an 8-0 lead.

Aided by a facemask penalty against Mystic Valley, the Rams put together a five play, 65 yard drive on their next possession, capping the drive on a 26 yard run by Jason Baker of Wilmington, who raced virtually untouched into the end zone with 9:56 left in the half. Another conversion catch by Allen, this one from Miller, made the score 16-0.

Mystic Valley did manage to pick up their first first down of the game on their next possession, but they were ultimately stymied by the Rams defense and were forced to punt and the Rams took advantage almost immediately.

After an 18-yard run by Foss, White found Miller behind the Mystic Valley secondary and hit him with a perfect pass for a 24-0 lead after Foss ran in the two point conversion. The two quarterbacks alternated possessions under center throughout the game, with White obviously having the better day throwing the ball, but White also had the benefit of throwing the ball to Miller who moved to wide receiver when not playing quarterback.

Miller caught three passes for 83 yard to lead the Rams in receiving yards.

Costabile played his reserves for the final drive of the first half, but came back with his starters for one series to open the second half and they put the game away quickly.

Things actually got off to a bad start for the Rams in the second half, as Mystic Valley surprised Shawsheen with an inside kick to start the half, and recovered with great field position. But Shawsheen held the Eagles to a three and out and White went to work for the final time on the day.

The junior completed four passes on an eight play, 68 yard drive that was capped with a perfect 18 yard pass to Allen, hitting him in stride in the end zone with 4:35 left in the third quarter. Foss ran in the conversion for a 32-0 lead.

Mystic Valley did get on the board late in the game on an 80 yard scoring pass from quarterback Artie Hoffman to receiver Eric Natale with 3:30 left in the game.

"It was good for us to get this win because it got us to feel good about ourselves again," Costabile said. "That was the most important thing about this game."

Rams Notebook

Shawsheen junior quarterback Kevin White of Tewksbury had his best game as Ram in Saturday afternoon's 32-6 win over Mystic Valley at Cassidy Field. White completed 7-of-9 passes on the day for 145 yards and two touchdowns, and also in a role that went a little more under the radar, had a great day at his defensive back position, making several big plays to help completely stymie the Mystic Valley offense.

It was his job at quarterback however that had Rams fans and coaches buzzing after the game.

"He threw the ball really well," Shawsheen coach Al Costabile said. "It is the best he has thrown the ball all year long."

White credited his teammates for his career day, pointing to both his offensive line as well as his receivers.

"The receivers ran very good routes and got open and the line did a real good job," White said. "I just made the throws because I had a lot of time."

The Rams normally grind the opposition with effective running plays, but Saturday was different as they mixed in the pass very effectively. White was certainly pleased with the opportunity to throw the ball.

"We switched it around a little bit today and it was a lot more fun as a quarterback," White said. "It gets the team going when we can also throw the ball."

One of White's biggest targets on the day was senior Shaun Miller, who when not alternating possessions at quarterback, moved to his wide receiver position. Miller caught a 50 yard touchdown pass in the second quarter from White as part of his three catches for 83 yards on the day.

"As a quarterback he knows what routes we are supposed to run and he does a good job of getting open," White said. "He knows where he is supposed to be and he gets there which makes it easier for me."

Wins and losses

It has been feast or famine for the Rams this season through six games as they have posted a 3-3 record with five games left in the season. In their three losses, the Rams have been outscored by a 93-8 margin. In their three wins, however, the Rams have outscored their opponents by a score of 73-21 with 14 of those points coming late in the game long after the outcome was already decided.

Next opponent

The trend of blowouts is likely to change this week when CAC Lower Division rival Chelsea High come to Cassidy Field at 1:30 on Saturday afternoon.

The teams appear to be very evenly matched, with Chelsea bringing a 3-2 record into the contest, with wins over Pope John (12-6), North Shore (35-6) and Shawsheen's CAC Large arch rival Greater Lowell by a score of 14-0 two weeks ago. Last week the Red Devils played another CAC Large foe, Whittier, very tough before dropping a 14-0 decision.

Chelsea will be led into battle by senior quarterback Nelson Molina, who has run for two touchdowns on the season, while throwing for another. His main offensive weapon is running back Melvin Ramirez who has run for three touchdowns on the year.

"Chelsea is a good team," Costabile said. "They played Whittier very tough this week, and they will be coming in here thinking they can get a win."

Shawsheen Tech Sports Round-Up

By MIKE IPPOLITO
Sports Correspondent

The Shawsheen Tech boys soccer team took their first step towards what they hope will be a very successful post season on Tuesday afternoon when they wrapped up a berth in the Division 3 North Tournament with a 3-0 win over CAC rival Whittier a Shawsheen.

The win improved the Rams to 7-1-3 on the season and put at ease any concerns that coach Dick Barris and his team might have had heading into the stretch run of the regular season.

"I told our team that it was very big for us to get this win, because our remaining six games they could all go either way," Barris said. "We could win all of them or lose all of them, but I would hate to have it come down to one game for them or anything like that, so it was important for us to get it done early."

Against Whittier, the Rams put the game away early with all of their scoring coming in the first half. Luke Riberio got the scoring started in the 28th minute off of a nice set up from Wilmington's Mike O'Connell, and Mike Terk of Wilmington added to the lead off an assist from Eric McLaughlin in the 35th minute.

Leo Riberio capped the scoring in the 38th minute with Terk picking up the assist.

"We put it away in the first half and then I was able to pull a lot of guys out in the second half," Barris said. "We have Chelsea on Thursday and I would have hated to risk injury or anything like that late in the game."

For a while it did not look like Barris would have that luxury, as the score remained deadlocked through much of the first half despite the Rams controlling territorial play.

"The team played well. We had 25 shots, 14 of them on net in the first half alone, but until Luke scored that goal we had been unable to make it pay off," Barris said. "After he scored, we were able to take a little more control and out it away."

In their previous game, last Friday at Greater Lowell, the Rams and Gryphons played to a 0-0 deadlock in a heated battle between two teams battling for second place behind Chelsea in the CAC Upper Division.

The big play in the game came early in the first half when goalie Mike LaMonica stopped a Gryphon penalty shot to preserve the scoreless tie. LaMonica made seven saves on the afternoon.

"Mike made a great save and then he kicked out the rebound to avoid them having another shot at it," Barris said. "He has faced four penalty shots this season and he has stopped two of them. He also made some other big saves to keep them off the board."

As Barris mentioned, the Rams will travel to Chelsea on Thursday to take on the perennial league champs. The game is a makeup of a game that originally rained out. The Rams will take on the Red Devils again next Tuesday at home.

"If we can beat Chelsea we are in the hunt for the league title," Barris said. "If not, it is much different. But we have the opportunity play them and give ourselves a chance to beat them."

Girls Soccer

The Shawsheen girls soccer team has already wrapped up a tournament berth, but they are on the verge of an even greater accomplishment, as with one more win they will wrap up the

CAC Upper Division title.

The Lady Rams had only one game this past week, but they made the most of it as they took another step toward taking the league crown with a hard fought 3-1 victory over Northeast Regional.

"We struggled a little with them," Shawsheen coach Doug Michaud said. "We had a little difficulty. I don't know if it was their field which was a little choppy or what, but we had a tough time."

Shawsheen lead just 1-0 at the half on a goal by Heather Masse, but in the second half they were able to put the game away on a pair of goals by junior forward and team leading scorer Jenna Zechner.

Zechner's first goal came on a nice set up from Wilmington's Jenn Carroll on a great give and go, but it was Zechner's second goal that had everyone still talking after the game.

"She put on a shot that I don't think anybody from the boys varsity could handle," Michaud said. "She shot it from the top of the box and just rifled it past the goalie. When she gets a hold of one she can do that."

The win improved the Lady Rams record on the season to 11-1-1 and with a win or tie over Greater Lowell on Wednesday they would wrap up the league crown. Shawsheen beat Greater Lowell 6-2 in their first meeting earlier this season, but Michaud is not taking anything for granted.

"Hopefully it goes the same as it did last time, but you never know," Michaud said. "Northeast got better since the last time we played them so I see no reason why Greater Lowell would not have gotten better as well."

If Shawsheen is able to wrap up the title, it would be their first under the direction on Michaud, who is in his third year as coach of the team.

"It would be a nice stepping-stone for the program," Michaud said. "Last year we won the vocational title and we have finished second two years in a row, so it would be nice to take that next step and win the league."

Golf

The Shawsheen golf team, having already wrapped up their fourth consecutive CAC title last week, competed in the State Vocational Tournament last Wednesday afternoon at Ridder Farms. After a second place finish in the tournament last season with a senior laden team that had an undefeated regular season, it was unclear how this inexperienced version of the Rams would fare in such a big tournament, but the answer as it turned out, was that they did quite well.

While they could not quite match last year's finish, the Rams did manage a fourth place finish out of 21 teams in the tournament with a total score of 325 points.

Brett Frederickson and Dan Jacobs led the way for the Rams, with each shooting a 77, while Stephen Murphy shot an 81, Ryan Strazzere a 90 and Chris Clayton a 91. Only the top four scores count towards the total.

"I thought the guys played really well," Shawsheen coach Tom Struthers said. "I was really happy for Dan Jacobs. He had a rough start to the season, but he came along real well. And Brett also played real well for us."

The Rams finished just behind CAC rival Minuteman in the tournament, a good sign for a Rams team in the midst of rebuilding process against a veteran Minuteman team. It is somewhat the same thing for the Rams entire season, where they have posted just a 5-7 overall due to losses to some strong non-league foes.

With one match left in the season, however, the Rams could pull within one game of .500 overall. A league title and a nearly .500 record would be something most coaches would accept during a rebuilding year.

"We are pretty much where I hope we would be at the start of the season," Struthers said. "I was hoping for .500 and we are almost there. We have some talented young players, some of whom are playing their first ever competitive golf. We had some kids really step up this year and hopefully next year we will continue to improve."

Cross Country

Both the boys and girls cross country teams wrapped up their regular season with undefeated record last Wednesday afternoon with a home meet victory over Greater Lowell and Mystic Valley. The boys finished their perfect season with a mark of 8-0, while the girls wrapped up their season with a perfect 9-0 record.

For the boys it was their first undefeated record in over ten years, as they have established themselves as a true power in the CAC. Shawsheen edged Mystic Valley by a score of 25-30 and got by Greater Lowell by a score of 22-33.

Shawsheen's junior tri-captain Bjorn Hanson finished first among the boys in a time of 18:19, while sophomore sensation Anthony Finn finished second overall in 18:46, setting a personal record and setting up the Shawsheen boys to defeat both opponents. Senior tri-captain Kevin Mahoney ran a personal best 19:07 in his final home meet to finish sixth overall and third for Shawsheen. The Rams' other captain, senior Travis Craigie finished in ninth place in 19:33. Senior Jeff Quilty got tangled with another runner and fell shortly after the start of the race, but he recovered to complete his team's scoring with a 20:12 run in fourteenth place overall.

"They (Mystic Valley) were impressive," said Hanson. "We had heard they were really good this year, and they are. It was a close race."

On the girls side, they had their closest match of the season with a 26-29 win over Mystic Valley and also picked up a 22-35 win over Greater Lowell. Shawsheen junior Alyssa Mooney of Tewksbury cruised to her fourth straight overall victory, keeping her undefeated on the season and set a course record in the process. Mooney's time of 21:25 bested the previous girls' course record by nearly two minutes.

Alyssa's pretty realistic," said Shawsheen coach Tim Broadrick after the race. "She knows the old record wasn't super fast, and she can continue to get faster. A bunch of girls beat the old record today."

Among those who also beat the course record was fellow Tewksbury junior captain Abby Pinard. Her fourth-place time of 22:32 was a personal best. Two Mystic Valley runners finished between Mooney and Pinard.

Freshman Grace Brogan and junior Molly Grzelczyk of Tewksbury finished eighth and ninth overall in respective times of 23:59 and 24:26. Freshman Johanne Legrand completed the Lady Rams' scoring, finishing eleventh overall in 25:17.

Friends lead Rams Cross Country team

By MIKE IPPOLITO
Sports Correspondent

Perhaps the best thing that ever happened to the Shawsheen Tech girls cross country team was Abby Pinard's great choice of friends. Tewksbury resident Pinard, now a junior star for the Rams joined the team as a freshman and immediately made her mark with the team, putting up great numbers in her first year.

And then before the season started last year, she made an even bigger contribution to the squad when she invited her friend and fellow Tewksbury resident Alyssa Mooney to join the team. Last year, as sophomores, the pair led the Rams to a very successful season with team MVP Pinard leading the way and Mooney following close behind. And this season the results have been even better, as the pair led the Rams to a perfect 8-0 regular season as they prepared for the CAC League Meet which was taking place on Wednesday afternoon.

The only difference this year is that Mooney has moved to the head of the pack with Pinard following close behind. It hardly matters the order the two finish, the result are still the same for Shawsheen. They dominate the rest of the CAC opposition. While Mooney is undefeated on the season, Pinard has not finished behind anybody but Mooney and two runners from Mystic Valley all season long.

They have been so great this season they have even surprised Rams coach Tim Broadrick, who knew he had a talented combination, but did not picture this kind of success.

"I didn't expect this," Broadrick said. "Abby has been our top runner for two years and last year when she brought Alyssa out they literally ran side by side, with Abby in front, but this year they have both taken it to another level."

Neither of the athletes saw this kind of success coming either, but they did know that they could be on the verge of something special in the pre season.

"We are doing a lot better this year and it is because a lot of girls are really stepping up for us," Pinard said. "We did not expect to go undefeated, but we did expect to be very good. We worked very hard to keep getting better."

Mooney also pointed to the effort that both they and their teammates have put into being successful this season.

"I did not expect this, but we did well last year and this year we have tried even harder to get better," Mooney said. "We talked to coach Broadrick at the beginning of the season and he told us we could go faster and it gave us something to shoot for."

Both Pinard and Mooney point to having each other on the team as a big key to their and the team's success.

"We both support each other," Pinard said. "We are best friends and when we are running I just try to stay with her. She has managed to get ahead of me, and that is ok because it helps the team."

And Mooney was equally effusive in her praise of Pinard.

"It's been awesome having her on the team," Mooney said. "We really push each other and that also helps the whole team do better. She is a great runner."

The pair's success has been very critical for the Rams, who lost one of their top runners, Molly Grzelczyk for most of the season and another Cristina, for the entire season. It was an injury that could have devastated a team, but with Mooney and Pinard leading the way, the Rams have achieved even more success than with their full roster.

"From a team point of view, I did not have any expectations after Cristina's injury at the start of the year and then Molly twisting her ankle in the second meet of the season," Broadrick said. "I still don't really have any expectations, but with the way these two have performed they have helped us have a great season."

Mooney's move past Pinard came as somewhat of a surprise given Pinard's dominance in her first two years. But on the other hand there were some signs of Mooney's potential last season, and Broadrick pointed to on race in particular where he saw just good Mooney might be.

At the CAC Meet last year she ran her first mile in 6:15," Broadrick said. "Now, as it turned out in that race, it was a little too fast for her and she dropped back in the pack, but I think it showed her that she could run with the best kids in the league. She knew she could compete at a higher level."

Mooney remembers the race that Broadrick is referring to and she concurs that it had a positive effect on her for this season.

"I went out too fast in that race, but I really liked it, being with the top runners like that," Mooney said. "It made me want to do it again."

For Pinard's part she has taken her role as the Rams number two option with a very positive attitude. It's not as if Pinard has slipped at all, in fact, she is even better this year than last year. She just happens to have what is probably the CAC MVP on her team. Broadrick has been very impressed with Pinard's ability to accept her role and keep performing at an elite level.

"I was a little worried about that, but I talked to Abby about it and she is thrilled for her friend and for the team," Broadrick said. "And she also has been a real team leader about it. She knows that at the CAC meet, everyone will be gunning for her, because they know if they can beat our number two runner they can rack up the points. She understands that and will do a great job with it."

Pinard being a team leader should come as no surprise as she has been named one of the team captains this season and has excelled in her role. Mooney, while not officially one of the Rams captains also has stepped into a leadership role for the team.

"Based on their performance they both lead by example," Broadrick said. "The leadership they bring, along with the other captains has been very valuable to the freshmen and sophomores on the team."

Pinard views her role as captain as just another way to help the team.

"I try to encourage the younger runners, telling them to keep moving during our long practice runs and to always do their best," Pinard said. "Even though Alyssa is not a captain, she definitely helps the younger runners on the team."

With the CAC Meet on tap for Wednesday, both runners were looking forward to wrapping up their season on a great note, but they were taking nothing for granted.

"We have some very good freshmen on the team who will help us do well," Mooney said. "We all just have to go out there and try to be even faster than we have been top this point."

Pinard was also ready for the biggest race of the year.

"We need to be at our best and we need the whole team to contribute as well. We have to try to not be too nervous, and make sure we realize that even though we have beaten these teams before they have gotten better and still can compete with us."

Jones is no Mother Theresa

By LOUIE CIMAGLIA
Sports Correspondent

If you were anywhere near a television this past weekend, you probably saw something peculiar. Funky, even.

There were crazy college upsets, marathon baseball games, and some wild finishes in the NFL. There was a little something for everyone. A smorgasbord of happenings, if you will. It was a weekend when we were all reminded why we love sports, even if the Pats and Sox got clobbered. The unexpected is routine.

But there is one routine that has officially gone on far too long. Adam "Pacman" Jones was suspended again on Tuesday, for violating league rules once again. He was involved in an "alcohol-related instance" on October 8 at a Dallas hotel according to ESPN news wire services.

Jones has, of course, been in trouble with the law before. He was suspended for the entire 2007 season because of a shooting at a Las Vegas nightclub that left one bouncer paralyzed from the neck-down. Jones was also questioned in relation to two other nightclub shooting incidents. He has also been bagged for public intoxication and disorderly conduct. Just to round out the picture you have, he has also been accused of spitting in a woman's face, possession of marijuana, felony vandalism, and speeding. That's not even everything. The Vegas case alone is one of the most despicable things you will ever read. Check it out on Wikipedia if you aren't familiar with it. It's scary stuff.

Mother Theresa, this man is not.

So the Dallas Cowboys decided to take a chance and pick this guy up. That experiment lasted about a month and a half before he was suspended again. It is a travesty if this man is allowed back into the NFL after this. It's easy enough to say he's a problem in the clubhouse or causes friction in the locker room. That's insignificant. Why should this guy continue to get second and third and fourth chances at playing a game, when that bouncer will never be able to walk again or resume a normal life?

And somehow, Jones got out of jail in a year, had a little community service, and is back playing football? That's just wrong. Roger Goodell should put his foot down and ban this man from the most successful sporting league on earth. The NFL is a national institution, and one that will not end for a very long time. The only way that this societal rock will crumble is from the inside-out.

Allowing criminals like Jones to play is a shame. It is not fair to hard-working players, fans and youth enjoying these games.

"I'd like to see him intensify his approach to getting better with his social conduct," Cowboys Owner Jerry Jones told ESPN.com. "I'd like to see that. If it were successful, I'd like to be a part of it. I'd like to have influenced it. I know the commissioner, considering his conduct policies in the NFL, it was a well-considered decision to let Adam back into the NFL."

That's what it's all about isn't it? Why are people wasting time trying to help this person, when he has proven he cannot handle being an adult with his fame and wealth. He doesn't deserve it. And he doesn't deserve to be in the NFL.

"I am disappointed for him and his opportunity and for the Cowboys and our opportunity and, frankly, for the NFL," Jones said. "I would like to have been standing here talking about his success and the curtain coming up for him and addressing his issues. That certainly would have been more positive."

Do you think so?

Local College Freshmen continue to pile up the awards

By DAN IGO

Sports Correspondent

Conference awards continue to pile up for some local athletes, with Wilmington native Leah Potcner the latest to pick up some hardware.

The freshman goalie at Salem State was named MASCAC Women's Soccer Player of the Week. She posted a 2-0 record and had 13 saves in wins over MCLA and Southern Maine.

Papageorgiou was named Northeast-10's Freshman of the Week for the third consecutive week. Last week he was also named the NE-10's Goalkeeper of the Week. Papageorgiou allowed just one goal during a 2-0 week for Franklin Pierce. He has three shutouts in 12 games.

Stephen Potcner scored two goals, including the game-winner, as UMass Lowell came back to defeat the College of St. Rose last Saturday. His game-winner came in the 78th minute. Potcner has five goals and two assists so far this year.

Tewksbury's Sammy Macy has not slowed down in her sophomore season for the UMass Lowell field hockey team. She scored two goals in helping lead the River Hawks to a 5-0 win over Merrimack on Sunday. The River Hawks are currently ranked No. 4 in the country.

Chris Byrne had his team's lone sack as Northeastern lost a heartbreaker to UMass 28-24 on Saturday. The Tewksbury native had three tackles on the day.

Wilmington's Amy Lentini scored her first goal of the season two weeks ago for the Lasell College field hockey team in a 4-3 win over Thomas

Wilmington resident Amy Lentini

College. The junior's goal came early in the second half and tied the score 3-3.

Taryn Martiniello also scored her first goal of the year for the Brandeis women's soccer team in its 4-0 win over Case Western Reserve University. The sophomore back scored in the 49th minute off of a corner kick.

Tewksbury's Paula Bartalamia, a senior forward for the Fitchburg State field hockey team, had an assist in her team's 3-2 win over Nichols on Thursday. She has three goals and four assists this season.

Two former Tewksbury High runners competed in Saturday's New England Cross-Country Championships held in Franklin Park. Sarah Bonomo, a sophomore at UMass Lowell, finished in 214th place in the women's varsity race with a time of 20:46. Eric Webb, a junior at Bentley, came in 242nd place in the men's varsity race with a five-mile time of 27:58.

Mass Maritime sophomore linebacker Stephen Alves was one of his team's few bright spots as the Buccaneers got throttled 34-3 to Westfield State. The Tewksbury native had three tackles, and fellow teammate Kevin McCarthy also had a tackle of his own.

Wilmington was well represented in the "B.A.A. Half-Marathon" held Sunday in Boston. Michael Cavallaro finished in 1046th place with a time of 1:48:38. Kara Stitt's time of 1:54:48 placed her 1578th. Darren Catalfamo was right behind her in 1581st place with a time of 1:54:48. Berta Cook came in 1871st place with a time of 1:58:16. Emily Dorrance came in 2098th place with a time of 2:00:36. Julie Cronin ran a time of 2:20:53 and finished 3333rd.

Two Wilmington natives competed in Sunday's "Bobby Bell 5 Miler" held in Haverhill. Ken Warren finished in 14th place with a very impressive time of 30:54. Trenton Hoyt's time of 38:49 placed him 117th.

The "Shawsheen Tech Friends & Alumni Homecoming 5k" will be held this Saturday at 9 am at the Shawsheen Tech cross-country course. For more information, contact Tim Broadrick at 978-671-3682.

Wilmington Rec. Basketball registration

The Recreation Department is currently offering several basketball programs that are both traditional and newer offerings.

Jr. Basketball is a co-ed program designed to teach children in Grades 1 and 2 the basics of the game. Players receive instruction and play scrimmages in six one-hour sessions on Saturdays from January 10 through February 14. The registration fee is $30 per child and the registration deadline is Monday, December 1. Forms are available in the Recreation Department or on the town website.

This is the 46th year of the Recreation Basketball League (WRBL) for children in Grades 3 through 10. There are 10

Saturday games and one week-night practice each week with separate divisions for boys and girls. The program will run from December 6 - February 14, with no games on December 27. The registration fee is $70. The registration deadline is Friday, October 17. Forms are available in the Recreation Department or on the town website.

The Referee Clinic is free, for ages 15 to Adult (must be 16 by 6/30/09), and teaches the skills necessary to be a recreational basketball referee. The Clinic includes classroom instruction and floor work. Priority hiring for referee positions will be given to those attending the Clinic. The Clinic will be held on Monday, November 10 and Thursday, November 13 from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Woburn St. School. Call the Recreation Department to register.

To register for these or other Recreation Department programs stop by Town Hall, Room 8 from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., or deliver a registration form and payment (where applicable) in a sealed envelope in the overnight drop next to the front door of Town Hall, or mail to Wilmington Recreation, 121 Glen Rd., Wilmington, MA 01887. # Wildcat golf, cross country and field hockey teams improving

Wildcats with 25 points, while Nick Bouteris added 24 of his own.

"Mike has really turned it up a notch toward the end of the season, and I am really happy to see him playing so well" Lynch said. "And Nick has had a fine year for us and will be back with us again next year."

Junior Pat Enright had 23 points while sophomore Andrew Strem had 21. It was not enough, however, as Hamilton-Wenham got strong performances up and down their lineup.

"Everybody for them scored at least in the 20's," Lynch said. "It was a tough way to end the season, but there was not much we could do because they played really well."

The 4-8 regular season record was a big improvement from last year, but Lynch also feels like it could have been better, and with all but one player returning to the team next year, he and the Wildcats will be looking to add even more to their win total.

"I think this year we probably should have been 6-6, but we let a couple of matches get away from us," Lynch said. "So I would say that if we are not at least 6-6 or 7-5 next year we would have to look at it as a disappointment."

The experience that the majority of players got this season should bode well for the future, according to Lynch.

"We have a good crop of players coming back and our team will be pretty much intact," Lynch said. "And the kids are all battle tested as well."

The season is not quite over for two Wildcats, as Chiracosta and Bouteris will both compete in the CAL Open on Thursday morning at Far Corners. Chiracosta and Bouteris were the top two scorers throughout the season with Bouteris averaging 23 points per match while Chiracosta averaged 21.5, narrowly edging out junior Aubrey Ungvarsky who averaged 21.1.

"Hopefully it will go better than last year. I think we finished last," Lynch said. "I think these guys will make some noise. They are good players and they earned their way there."

WHS Field Hockey

The baby steps have continued for the WHS Field Hockey team. This past week the Wildcats picked up two points with a scoreless tie against Georgetown and a 1-1 tie with Pentucket, sandwiched between a 3-1 loss to Masconomet.

Overall, Wilmington is now 2-11-2 and have played 100 percent better the last two weeks than beforehand.

"At the beginning of the season, Masco beat us 5-0 and on Friday we lost 3-1," said head coach Jodi MacKenzie. "Although it's a loss, I think this shows that we have come a long way. Getting on the board during that game meant a lot to the girls. They really did pick it up and play a good game and it was enjoyable to watch."

The rematch success continued on Monday as Wilmington ended in a 1-1 tie with Pentucket, after losing 1-0 to the Sachems in the first round.

"The girls really wanted the win, but Pentucket held us to the last second of the game," said MacKenzie.

MacKenzie added that the team has been able to take its baby steps due to the strong play of several members of the team, including goalie Katie Riley.

The Wilmington High School Football Cheerleading team has done a terrific job once again this fall season. (photo by JoeBrownphotos.com).

"Katie is having a great season," said MacKenzie. "At the end of every game, either another coach or a referee will confront me about how much of a great player she is. She does have an immense amount of spirit."

Riley is one of the team's three captains joining Kerry Hanafan and Ruth Blaisdell.

"The three of them are really enjoying the season and that can make a huge difference for a team," said MacKenzie.

MacKenzie has previously said many times the tremendous improvement from another player, Fiona Gately, who is currently on the DL.

"She is a fantastic player and only a sophomore," said MacKenzie. "At times you can see that killer instinct in her on the field, which I don't see with this group of girls. She's always wanting the ball, and can get really aggressive. Fiona is out due to a concussion, which did not happen on the field hockey field."

Wilmington has four games left on the season, including Wednesday's game with Newburyport, with results not known as of presstime. The Wildcats will return home for night games with North Andover (11-1-2) on Friday and Amesbury (4-8-2) on Monday, before ending the season on Wednesday against Triton (2-7-5) Regional.

WHS Cross Country

The Wilmington High School girls' cross country team defeated Amesbury, 15-45, in dominating fashion last Tuesday afternoon putting the team's record to 4-4 overall.

Ali Lyman and Natalie Russo finished at the same time of 19:59. Nikki Sirignano was third (21:09), with Jessica Burke fourth (21:17) and Lisa Hitchins fifth (21:33) as Wilmington had the top five overall finishers. Syd Russo and Courtney Collins finished out the Wildcat performers coming across at 22:06 and 22:53, respectively.

The boys team were defeated by Amesbury, 21-38, to fall to 0-8. Tom Valente was the overall winner coming in at 17:07. He was followed by Cole Pepper (5th, 17:59) and Zack Sears (7th, 18:22). Jeff Kannally had his best effort of the season, according to head coach Tom Bradley, while, Jim DiNuccio, Sean Keane and Andrea LaRosa also put forth strong efforts.

Northern Essex CC celebrates new additions to its baseball field

The baseball field on Northern Essex Community College's Haverhill Campus is now fully enclosed with a new chain-link fence, thanks to a generous $25,000 donation from the NECC Foundation.

Students on the college's nationally ranked baseball team will now spend a lot more time playing the game and a lot less time chasing balls, according to Sue MacAvoy, the college's athletic director.

The improvements to the field will also enable the college to host post season tournaments and rent the field to community organizations which frequently require an enclosed field.

"We're very grateful to the foundation for donating the funding to upgrade our field," said MacAvoy. "It will have a tremendous impact on our already very successful program."

Alex Hill recently was named the new coach of the NECC Knights, replacing Kerry Quinlan, who served as head coach for nine years, overseeing the Knights at four state championships and one regional championship.

The college offers both fall and spring baseball. For more information, contact Sue MacAvoy at smacavoy@necc.mass.edu or 978-556-3820.

The Northern Essex Community College Foundation, Inc. is a nonprofit organization established to provide support and expanded opportunities for the college. Incorporated in 1972, the foundation assists the college by making connections with the business community, foundations and other potential revenue sources and by hosting a variety of fundraising special events. Funds raised are used for: student scholarships; equipment purchases; program revitalization; faculty and staff development and other needs as they arise and are approved by the foundation board of directors.

Wilmington Youth Hockey Round-Up

Pee Wee A's come away with tough win

The Chelmsford Forum rocked Friday night as the Wilmington Pee Wee A youth hockey team visited the home rink of the Chelmsford Lions for an early season Valley League matchup of Pee Wee A teams.

This was the first contest of the year between these two hockey rivals, and it was one both teams can use as a positive building block as the season progresses. Only seven games into the season, both teams came into the game in mid-season form.

Wilmington carried the play for most of the first period, and despite great hustle and grit from Sam D'Angelo, Brandon Gentile and Joe Visalli, there was no scoring from either team. Goaltender Glenn Sullivan was called upon to make numerous point blank saves while holding back the Chelmsford attack.

Crushing checks to Chelmsford's attackers by Brian Cavanaugh and James Hill helped set the tone for Wilmington's play.

The Wildcats continued to pressure the Chelmsford defense early in the second period but were unable to put one in the net. Just under 2 minutes into the period, Chelmsford streaked into the Wilmington zone and fired a 20-footer through traffic for a one goal lead.

Down by one, aggressive play by Madison Roberts and Michael Baker continued to put pressure on Chelmsford's defense. Chelmsford's offense continued to attack the Wilmington zone, but mothering defensive play by Brian Cavanaugh and Adrianna Rossini kept Chelmsford at bay.

With three minutes left in the second period Joe Castellano broke down the left wing side into the Chelmsford end and buried a wrist shot into the back of the net to tie the score at 1.

Wilmington took the lead early in the third when Brandon Gentile finished off a pass from Corey Stillings on a play that started just inside the Wilmington blue line on a pass from defenseman James Hill that led Stillings down the right side and into the Chelmsford zone. On the ensuing center ice face-off Joey Marino and Joe Castellano combined some great passing as Marino potted another goal for Wilmington for a 3-1 lead.

Down by two, Chelmsford really picked up the play. If not for some acrobatic stops by Sullivan, the game could have gotten out of hand. Up and down action was highlighted by offensive and defensive plays at both ends of the ice. After some exciting two way play, Chelmsford rallied to tie the score, slipping two scores into the Wilmington net, the second goal coming with six minutes remaining in the game.

With time running out on the clock, the Wilmington offense took over. Swarming the Chelmsford end for over a minute, Mark Albano picked up a loose puck and buried the game winner with 3:15 left in the game. Chelmsford pulled their goalie for the last minute of play, but could not penetrate the Wilmington defense before the final buzzer.

If this game was any indication of what's to come for Wilmington's Pee Wee A team, they're going to be an exciting and entertaining team to watch in the upcoming season. The team's next game will be another test as they visit the O'Brien Arena Friday 10/17 to take on the Woburn Tanners.

Squirt 3's

The Wilmington Squirt 3 Wildcats took on Wakefield this past Sunday in Valley League action. In the morning game at Break Away Ice Center's new rink in Tewksbury.

Wakefield came out shooting, getting their first goal after only 30 seconds of play. On a screen shot in front of Wildcat goalie, Christiaan

Medugno, Wakefield took a two goal lead. That was as close as they would get. Wilmington answered right back when defenseman Brenden McGaffigan passed off to David Peterson for a sweet one timer that opened the gates for the Wildcats.

Thirty seconds later, center Matthew Blair went in on a breakaway to tie it up.

Wakefield tried to break the tie but, Wilmington defenseman Spencer Maffei, Bret Malone, Jonathon Simmons, and McGaffigan did a super job of keeping them away from Medugno in net. At 7:52 Wilmington struck again with Peterson getting the goal and Andrew Sullivan getting the helper.

One minute after that, Blair hit again, putting a Sarah King rebound. Play returned down to the Wilmington zone where Christiaan used a fast glove to stop Wakefield cold. The period finished with Ryan Maher netting two quick goals, the first unassisted, the second with the help of a nice pass from Bret Malone.

The middle period saw Wilmington still skating hard and fast when Andrew Sullivan took a David Peterson pass in front, and slide it in at 11:43. Matt Blair nailed the hattrick at 9:35, unassisted. At 6:06 Wakefield found a hole in Medugno's pads and made it 8-3.

Andrew answered right back for his second goal, ending the scoring for the second period.

The third period Wilmington showed some great passing as they started to connect on more side to side plays. At 8:10 Bret Malone scored on a pass play that started with Jocelyn Sullivan and Sarah King, with each lady getting an assist. Ryan Maher picked up his hattrick at 7:29 with an assist going to David Peterson. The scoring ended when Sarah King nailed a Spencer Maffei rebound to give Wilmington their first win of the season, 12-3.

Wildcats with 25 points, while Nick Bouteris added 24 of his own.

"Mike has really turned it up a notch toward the end of the season, and I am really happy to see him playing so well," Lynch said. "And Nick has had a fine year for us and will be back with us again next year."

Junior Pat Enright had 23 points while sophomore Andrew Strem had 21. It was not enough, however, as Hamilton-Wenham got strong performances up and down their lineup.

"Everybody for them scored at least in the 20's," Lynch said. "It was a tough way to end the season, but there was not much we could do because they played really well."

The 4-8 regular season record was a big improvement from last year, but Lynch also feels like it could have been better, and with all but one player returning to the team next year, he and the Wildcats will be looking to add even more to their win total.

"I think this year we probably should have been 6-6, but we let a couple of matches get away from us," Lynch said. "So I would say that if we are not at least 6-6 or 7-5 next year we would have to look at it as a disappointment."

The experience that the majority of players got this season should bode well for the future, according to Lynch.

"We have a good crop of players coming back and our team will be pretty much intact," Lynch said. "And the kids are all battle tested as well."

The season is not quite over for two Wildcats, as Chiracosta and Bouteris will both compete in the CAL Open on Thursday morning at Far Corners. Chiracosta and Bouteris were the top two scorers throughout the season with Bouteris averaging 23 points per match while Chiracosta averaged 21.5, narrowly edging out junior Aubrey Ungvarsky who averaged 21.1.

"Hopefully it will go better than last year. I think we finished last," Lynch said. "I think these guys will make some noise. They are good players and they earned their way there."

WHS Field Hockey

The baby steps have continued for the WHS Field Hockey team. This past week the Wildcats picked up two points with a scoreless tie against Georgetown and a 1-1 tie with Pentucket, sandwiched between a 3-1 loss to Masconomet.

Overall, Wilmington is now 2-11-2 and have played 100 percent better the last two weeks than beforehand.

"At the beginning of the season, Masco beat us 5-0 and on Friday we lost 3-1," said head coach Jodi MacKenzie. "Although it's a loss, I think this shows that we have come a long way. Getting on the board during that game meant a lot to the girls. They really did pick it up and play a good game and it was enjoyable to watch."

The rematch success continued on Monday as Wilmington ended in a 1-1 tie with Pentucket, after losing 1-0 to the Sachems in the first round.

"The girls really wanted the win, but Pentucket held us to the last second of the game," said MacKenzie.

MacKenzie added that the team has been able to take its baby steps due to the strong play of several members of the team, including goalie Katie Riley.

The Wilmington High School Football Cheerleading team has done a terrific job once again this fall season. (photo by JoeBrownphotos.com).

"Katie is having a great season," said MacKenzie. "At the end of every game, either another coach or a referee will confront me about how much of a great player she is. She does have an immense amount of spirit."

Riley is one of the team's three captains joining Kerry Hanafan and Ruth Blaisdell.

"The three of them are really enjoying the season and that can make a huge difference for a team," said MacKenzie.

MacKenzie has previously said many times the tremendous improvement from another player, Fiona Gately, who is currently on the DL.

"She is a fantastic player and only a sophomore," said MacKenzie. "At times you can see that killer instinct in her on the field, which I don't see with this group of girls. She's always wanting the ball, and can get really aggressive. Fiona is out due to a concussion, which did not happen on the field hockey field."

Wilmington has four games left on the season, including Wednesday's game with Newburyport, with results not known as of presstime. The Wildcats will return home for night games with North Andover (11-1-2) on Friday and Amesbury (4-8-2) on Monday, before ending the season on Wednesday against Triton (2-7-5) Regional.

WHS Cross Country

The Wilmington High School girls' cross country team defeated Amesbury, 15-45, in dominating fashion last Tuesday afternoon putting the team's record to 4-4 overall.

Ali Lyman and Natalie Russo finished at the same time of 19:59. Nikki Sirignano was third (21:09), with Jessica Burke fourth (21:17) and Lisa Hitchins fifth (21:33) as Wilmington had the top five overall finishers. Syd Russo and Courtney Collins finished out the Wildcat performers coming across at 22:06 and 22:53, respectively.

The boys team were defeated by Amesbury, 21-38, to fall to 0-8. Tom Valente was the overall winner coming in at 17:07. He was followed by Cole Pepper (5th, 17:59) and Zack Sears (7th, 18:22). Jeff Kannally had his best effort of the season, according to head coach Tom Bradley, while, Jim DiNuccio, Sean Keane and Andrea LaRosa also put forth strong efforts.

Northern Essex CC celebrates new additions to its baseball field

The baseball field on Northern Essex Community College's Haverhill Campus is now fully enclosed with a new chain-link fence, thanks to a generous $25,000 donation from the NECC Foundation.

Students on the college's nationally ranked baseball team will now spend a lot more time playing the game and a lot less time chasing balls, according to Sue MacAvoy, the college's athletic director.

The improvements to the field will also enable the college to host post season tournaments and rent the field to community organizations which frequently require an enclosed field.

"We're very grateful to the foundation for donating the funding to upgrade our field," said MacAvoy. "It will have a tremendous impact on our already very successful program."

Alex Hill recently was named the new coach of the NECC Knights, replacing Kerry Quinlan, who served as head coach for nine years, overseeing the Knights at four state championships and one regional championship.

The college offers both fall

and spring baseball. For more information, contact Sue MacAvoy at smacavoy@necc.mass.edu or 978-556-3820.

The Northern Essex Community College Foundation, Inc. is a nonprofit organization established to provide support and expanded opportunities for the college. Incorporated in 1972, the foundation assists the college by making connections with the business community, foundations and other potential revenue sources and by hosting a variety of fundraising special events. Funds raised are used for: student scholarships; equipment purchases; program revitalization; faculty and staff development and other needs as they arise and are approved by the foundation board of directors.

Wilmington Youth Hockey Round-Up

Pee Wee A's come away with tough win

The Chelmsford Forum rocked Friday night as the Wilmington Pee Wee A youth hockey team visited the home rink of the Chelmsford Lions for an early season Valley League matchup of Pee Wee A teams.

This was the first contest of the year between these two hockey rivals, and it was one both teams can use as a positive building block as the season progresses. Only seven games into the season, both teams came into the game in mid-season form.

Wilmington carried the play for most of the first period, and despite great hustle and grit from Sam D'Angelo, Brandon Gentile and Joe Visalli, there was no scoring from either team. Goaltender Glenn Sullivan was called upon to make numerous point blank saves while holding back the Chelmsford attack.

Crushing checks to Chelmsford's attackers by Brian Cavanaugh and James Hill helped set the tone for Wilmington's play.

The Wildcats continued to pressure the Chelmsford defense early in the second period but were unable to put one in the net. Just under 2 minutes into the period, Chelmsford streaked into the Wilmington zone and fired a 20-footer through traffic for a one goal lead.

Down by one, aggressive play by Madison Roberts and Michael Baker continued to put pressure on Chelmsford's defense. Chelmsford's offense continued to attack the Wilmington zone, but mothering defensive play by Brian Cavanaugh and Adrianna Rossini kept Chelmsford at bay.

With three minutes left in the second period Joe Castellano broke down the left wing side into the Chelmsford end and buried a wrist shot into the back of the net to tie the score at 1.

Wilmington took the lead early in the third when Brandon Gentile finished off a pass from Corey Stillings on a play that started just inside the Wilmington blue line on a pass from defenseman James Hill that led Stillings down the right side and into the Chelmsford zone. On the ensuing center ice face-off Joey Marino and Joe Castellano combined some great passing as Marino potted another goal for Wilmington for a 3-1 lead.

Down by two, Chelmsford really picked up the play. If not for some acrobatic stops by Sullivan, the game could have gotten out of hand. Up and down action was highlighted by offensive and defensive plays at both ends of the ice. After some exciting two way play, Chelmsford rallied to tie the score, slipping two scores into the Wilmington net, the second goal coming with six minutes remaining in the game.

With time running out on the clock, the Wilmington offense took over. Swarming the Chelmsford end for over a minute, Mark Albano picked up a loose puck and buried the game winner with 3:15 left in the game. Chelmsford pulled their goalie for the last minute of play, but could not penetrate the Wilmington defense before the final buzzer.

If this game was any indication of what's to come for Wilmington's Pee Wee A team, they're going to be an exciting and entertaining team to watch in the upcoming season. The team's next game will be another test as they visit the O'Brien Arena Friday 10/17 to take on the Woburn Tanners.

Squirt 3's

The Wilmington Squirt 3 Wildcats took on Wakefield this past Sunday in Valley League action. In the morning game at Break Away Ice Center's new rink in Tewksbury.

Wakefield came out shooting, getting their first goal after only 30 seconds of play. On a screen shot in front of Wildcat goalie, Christiaan

Medugno, Wakefield took a two goal lead. That was as close as they would get. Wilmington answered right back when defenseman Brenden McGaffigan passed off to David Peterson for a sweet one timer that opened the gates for the Wildcats.

Thirty seconds later, center Matthew Blair went in on a breakaway to tie it up.

Wakefield tried to break the tie but, Wilmington defenseman Spencer Maffei, Bret Malone, Jonathon Simmons, and McGaffigan did a super job of keeping them away from Medugno in net. At 7:52 Wilmington struck again with Peterson getting the goal and Andrew Sullivan getting the helper.

One minute after that, Blair hit again, putting a Sarah King rebound. Play returned down to the Wilmington zone where Christiaan used a fast glove to stop Wakefield cold. The period finished with Ryan Maher netting two quick goals, the first unassisted, the second with the help of a nice pass from Bret Malone.

The middle period saw Wilmington still skating hard and fast when Andrew Sullivan took a David Peterson pass in front, and slide it in at 11:43. Matt Blair nailed the hattrick at 9:35; unassisted. At 6:06 Wakefield found a hole in Medugno's pads and made it 8-3.

Andrew answered right back for his second goal, ending the scoring for the second period.

The third period Wilmington showed some great passing as they started to connect on more side to side plays. At 8:10 Bret Malone scored on a pass play that started with Jocelyn Sullivan and Sarah King, with each lady getting an assist. Ryan Maher picked up his hattrick at 7:29 with an assist going to David Peterson. The scoring ended when Sarah King nailed a Spencer Maffei rebound to give Wilmington their first win of the season, 12-3.

Winchester hits home run, lands World Series

By PAUL FEELY

Some of the top young baseball players in the country will be heading to Winchester next summer, and they need places to stay.

As a town, Winchester has been one of the bridesmaids of the youth baseball world in recent years, hosting the 12-year-old Cal Ripken Major/60 New England Regional Tournament in three of the last four seasons, but had yet to be awarded a shot at hosting the finals. That will all change next summer, when Winchester takes the center spotlight on the national stage of youth hardball as host of the 2009 World Series.

The tourney, which will feature a 10-team field from across the country, was officially awarded to Sachem Youth Baseball-Softball (SYBS) last spring and will be played Aug. 15 to 22, 2009 at Robert J. Nutile Field.

The first-ever selection of SYBS as host for this prestigious event marks a crowning achievement in the storied history of Winchester's youth baseball program.

"We are honored to be going to Winchester with the 2009 Cal Ripken Major/60 World Series," said Robert Faherty, vice president and commissioner of Babe Ruth League Inc., which oversees the Ripken Division, in a prepared release.

"I was not only impressed with the community, but also by its commitment to youth. Main factors we consider are the facility, headquarters hotel, housing for players, community support, and a diverse athletic, cultural, and educational experience. Winchester has all of these ingredients and more."

There's a bonus for local players as well - as an added benefit for serving as tournament host, Winchester automatically draws one of the 10 berths. The other nine will include regional champions from Eastern Massachusetts, Mideast-Plains, Mid-Atlantic, New England, Ohio Valley, Pacific Northwest, Pacific Southwest, Southeast, and Southwest.

On May 20, 2008, SYBS and Babe Ruth League representatives met in Winchester's Town Hall to sign the contract that will bring the 10th Annual Cal Ripken 12-Year Old World Series to Nutile Field. The first-ever selection of SYBS as the host for this prestigious event marks a crowning achievement in the storied history of Winchester's youth baseball program. Shown here at the signing are: (seated) Robert Faherty (Vice President, Babe Ruth Baseball, Inc.) and Bob Nutile (President, SYBS) Standing (players): Michael Grassey, Andrew Woolston, Stephen Michienzi, Jack Wilhoite, Bobby Reardon, and Phillip Woolston Standing (rear): Mark Matanes, Tim Woolston, Bob Reardon, Randy Wilhoite, Rich Michienzi, and Mike Janicki.

Sachem Youth Baseball-Softball President Bob Nutile said, "We're truly honored and excited to have been selected to host the World Series. SYBS has hosted many youth baseball tournaments over the years, but this event will provide the Winchester community and New England residents with a unique opportunity to participate in one of America's finest youth sports events."

Nutile, whom the field is named after, also added in a prepared statement, "We're very grateful to the dedicated volunteers and Winchester residents who have helped to make this possible. We have a lot of work left to do, but we intend to put on a great World Series."

According to a published league history, in the summer of 1999, Babe Ruth League, Inc. changed the name of its largest division from "Bambino" to "Cal Ripken Baseball." Since the name change, the league has grown by an average of 7% each year and is the only youth baseball league that has shown growth over that time. Currently, over 700,000 kids, ages 5-12, play Cal Ripken Baseball worldwide.

The first ever Cal Ripken World Series was held in Mattoon, IL in 2000 for the 12 and under age group. Two years later, after the Ripken Baseball organization dove into the world of youth baseball camps and tournaments, the Cal Ripken World Series moved to Aberdeen, Maryland.

In 2003, the Cal Ripken World Series was played in Ripken Stadium, home of the minor league Oriole-affiliate Aberdeen IronBirds.

In 2003 and 2004, the minor Winchester to S-4

"BODY OF LIES"

"BODY OF LIES" stars Leonardo DiCaprio as a CIA operative in this intelligent political thriller supposedly about a hunt in the Middle East for a terrorist leader. This movie keeps you off balance and unsure of who is allied with whom.

"BODY OF LIES"

GRADE: ***

Body of Lies" is an intelligent political thriller about a hunt in the Middle East for a terrorist leader, but is really about the manipulation of people like pawns in a worldwide game of RISK.

The movie stars Leonardo DiCaprio as CIA operative Roger Ferris and Russell Crowe as Ed Hoffman, his superior.

Director Ridley Scott keeps the story moving as Ferris devises a complex plan to smoke out his target, only to discover that he is simply a pawn in someone else's game.

Considering the wealth of characters and the complexity of the plots, counterplots and plays thrown at the audience, the movie is actually not that difficult to follow.

It is mostly driven by DiCaprio's intense performance as a man trying to retain a spark of morality and decency in an ugly world of lies and deceptions.

Crowe is amiably amoral and slovenly as the folksy bureaucrat not bothered if innocent people are caught in the crosshairs.

"Body of Lies" keeps you off balance and on your toes, as you are constantly uncertain about who is playing whom and who is allied with whom.

Scott uses many shots offering satellite-like panoramas of the action below, allowing us to feel like we are the ones pulling the strings on these puppets.

The solid screenplay by William Monahan provides well-rounded characters. Even the people considered villains are not presented as your typical Middle Eastern fanatical terrorists.

Acting honors go to Mark

Strong as the head of Jordanian intelligence. His cool, suave performance nearly steals the movie from its two stars.

The movie's one misstep is a budding romance between Ferris and an Iranian nurse, which seems thrown into the script at the last minute.

"Body of Lies" does not present the problems and politics of the Mideast in simplistic black-and-white terms. This thinking person's thriller grabs your attention from the outset.

"FLASH OF GENIUS"

GRADE: **

Greg Kinnear plays another of his likeable but complex characters in Flash of Genius, the true story of the man who invented the intermittent windshield wiper and had his invention stolen.

The movie, a classic David vs. Goliath story, begins in the mid 1960s when Kinnear as Bob Kearns, a college professor and mechanical engineer has the idea, the flash of genius, one rainy afternoon that windshield wipers should have more than two speeds - they should work like a blinking eye.

Back at home in his workshop, away from his adoring kids and patient wife (Lauren Graham), Kearns tinkers around until he's successful. Living in Detroit, home of the big three auto manufacturers, Kearns seems to be in the right place at the right time. He reaches out to his friend Gil (Dermot Mulroney) whose company works closely with the large automakers to try and sell his invention. Ford agrees to take a look at Kearns' invention and seems ready to climb aboard, even agreeing to Kearns' intention

While there has been a lot of news coverage of the insurgency and ongoing hardships of war in Afghanistan, little has been seen or heard about how people in the country are rebuilding. Paula Lerner's photographic exhibit, Afghan Stories, is the exception.

On display in the Griffin Museum's Atelier Gallery at the Stoneham Theatre from October 23 to November 22, the exhibit explores another side of Afghanistan and shows a world that has been largely unknown

About the Towns OF LAND, SEA, AND SERVICE

by Phyllis Nissen

The changing landfill (North Reading)

"Motivated by economic concerns as well as a changing landscape in solid waste management, the Selectmen made a number of changes to the town's trash disposal program," notes the "North Reading Transcript."

"Wrapping up a wide-ranging two-hour discussion of the subject, the board made the following decisions effective already:

"The town's annual trash disposal fee will remain in place and increase to $226 per year, a hike of $46. This is actually better news than expected because during budget season, planners had projected a hike of $68 if the Proposition 2 - override failed.

"The trash fee will continue to be billed in quarterly increments, which will rise to $56.50, from $45. The new rate was adopted on a 4 to 1 vote, with Joe Veno voting 'no' on principle.

"On a unanimous vote and acting on the recommendation of DPW Director David Hanlon and the Solid Waste Committee, the board voted to impose a limit on the number of trash bags residents can put out for curbside pickup every week.

"Homeowners will be limited to placing four trash bags out for pickup every week. These are the large, 30 or 32-gallon heavy trash bags or closed to Western observers. The exhibit runs parallel to the theatre's production of How many Miles to Basra?

since 2005 to document women's lives. Her photos and multimedia presentations have won many awards, including a Volunteer Excellence Award from the Business Council for Peace, an organization that helps women in post-conflict countries establish self-sustaining businesses.

Lerner's passion for photographing people has taken her around the world, from Afghanistan to the Amazon. Her subjects come from all walks of life and her assignments have ranged from stories on cancer patients, factory workers, and corporate executives to profiles of eminent scientists, authors, and performing artists. ESCAPE TO THE VINEYARD

Join the Suburban Adventure Club for its annual fall Escape to the Vineyard, Fri-Sun Oct 31-Nov 2. Meet others in their 30s+. Lodging in Edgartown, 2 continental breakfasts, happy hour, group dinner reservations and activity coordination all included for only $188+tax.

RSVP needed immediately! Call 978-337-4444 with questions and to confirm. See www.SuburbanAdventureClub.com for more information on this and other events.

commonly sold, not the 13-gallon 'kitchen-sized' bags that are also familiar. Pinning down the definitions of trash bag sizes - in addition to what constitutes a trash barrel accounted for a large portion of the two-hour confab.

"With Veno dissenting, the board adopted a recommendation from Hanlon to impose a 'visual recycling policy' to take effect in the new fiscal year.

"Simply stated, when the trash haulers come by your house, if it's obviously apparent your four trash bags are stuffed with paper, glass, cardboard or other materials that should be recycled, they won't pick up the bag.

"This policy will be phased in after residents are given ample notice, Hanlon emphasized.

"We realize there will be phone calls and complaints,' regarding both the bag limits and 'visual recycling' policies, said Hanlon, but he felt they are warranted economically and environmentally...."

Happy sails to you (Wilmington)

"Following in a family tradition of boating, it is 'full speed ahead' for Leia Kaplan, Wilmington High School's first female graduate to be appointed to the Massachusetts Maritime Academy, located in Buzzards Bay," notes the "Wilmington Town Crier."

"On the Nova Scotia side of her mother's family, there is a history of careers at sea, including lobstermen. Kaplan's great grandfather worked as a cook on pilot boats. Her grandfather retired after decades as a tugboat captain. Even her father and some of his cousins enjoy boating. Kaplan's mother, Kathy, said her daughter was on her first boat at age one and has been around them much of her life.

"Founded in 1891, the Massachusetts Maritime Academy is the oldest operating maritime academy in the United States. The academy offers a four-year curriculum leading to a Bachelors of Science degree in programs such as Engineering, International Maritime Business, Maritime Transportation, Environmental Science and Emergency Management and Homeland Security. Kaplan will embark on a dual major of Emergency Management and Homeland Security. Two of her WHS classmates, Kyle Moon and Jon Kincaid, have also been appointed to the academy.

"The Emergency Management program is relatively new to the Massachusetts Maritime Academy and just this year had its first graduating class. Cadets in the program study emergency situations that range from natural disasters, such as hurricanes and mudslides, to man-made disasters. They study preparedness and prevention as well as rescue and recovery.

"Kaplan first took an interest in emergency management during her junior year of high school when a friend introduced her to the Civil Air Patrol (CAP). Civil Air Patrol is a non-profit organization (an Air Force Auxiliary) that performs inland search and rescue missions as tasked by the Air Force. Although she was never called out in an emergency situation during her year in the CAP, Kaplan participated in many practice search and rescue missions in the woods.

"Kaplan is really excited to do something different...."

About town and country

"Wakefield's Veterans' Services, a member of Massachusetts Department of Veterans' Services was established to assist needy, eligible wartime veterans and or their dependent/s as mandated by Massachusetts General Law 115 Section 5 and regulated by CMR 108 DVS," according to the Town of Wakefield website.

"Services are provided on request to those veterans who are full-time residents of Wakefield, who have been honorably discharged from U.S. military service and who meet the asset limitation determined at the time of application. A home and one motor vehicle are not included as countable assets. Service is also provided for veterans and/or their dependents in filing for VA pension or compensation as each case warrants, health care, Social Security, Supplemental security or disability, burial and grave markers, obtaining military records, rehabilitation, medals, education, bonus and annuity application and many other items.

"Your Veterans Services Officer - Carl F. Saunders is Wakefield's Veteran's agent - will visit the homes of aged and ill veterans who are unable to visit the in the Town Hall. Medical records are necessary to support requests for benefits for veterans unable to work because of disability. All others must find work. A Veteran is obligated to use alternative sources of income which will be explained when applying."

SPORTS SHORTS

•MIDDLESEX EAST SPORTS WEEKLY TRIVIA

QUESTION: When was the last time the ALCS was played between two AL East teams that weren't the Yankees and the Red Sox facing each other?

Answer appears elsewhere in this column.

•Six former Westfield State standouts will be inducted into the college's Athletics Hall of Fame during the 2008 Alumni Weekend.

The 13th annual inductions will be held Friday evening, Oct. 17, in Scanlon Banquet Hall on the Westfield State campus.

Among the inductees is North Reading resident Chuck Carucci.

Carucci ('92) was a four-year standout football player at Westfield State. A defensive back, Carucci still holds school records for most interceptions in a game (3), season (7), and career (22).

Carucci made an immediate impact his freshman season in 1987, when he earned ECAC player of the week honors with his school record three interceptions vs. Mass. Maritime. He also holds school records for career pass breakups (31) and longest fumble return for a touchdown (76 yards).

An all-conference selection in 1988, Carucci emerged as a team leader during his senior season when he was named All America honorable mention by the Football Gazette. He was the team's second leading tackler (88 tackles) in 1991 and had 10 pass breakups and six interceptions. He also returned punts and kickoffs.

Carucci was a three-sport star at North Reading High School in football, basketball and baseball. He served as an assistant high school football coach from 1992 to 2000.

Carucci has run in four Boston Marathons and was a member of the North Reading parks and recreation department for two years.

Self employed as the owner of Commonwealth Oil in North Reading, Carucci is a member of the North Reading Chamber of Commerce.

Carucci resides in his hometown with his wife, Amy, and sons Aidan (6) and Alex (3).

For ticket information, contact 413-572-5433.

•STONEHAM'S JEFF CORBETT

'09 continued his hot streak on the golf course as Hamilton College hosted SUNY Delhi at the Skenandoa Club in Clinton, N.Y., on Sept. 30.

Corbett, who earned a spot on the 2008 New England Small College Athletic Conference all-conference first team based on his performance at the NESCAC championship qualifier on Sept. 27 and 28, led a 21-man field with a 2-over par round of 74 on the 6,563-yard course.

Kevin Osborne '09 carded a 75 and L.J. Scurfield '12 posted a 76 for the Continentals. Phil Preiss '10 and Will Kresock '11 added rounds of 79 on Hamilton's "B" team. Delhi's top four scores added up to a total of 304 strokes, which was one shot better than the Continentals' 305.

•Need some help with this week's question? The two teams involved were the Yankees and the Orioles.

•Looking for its eighth-straight win against high-powered Lafayette recently, Harvard received an impressive and balanced effort on both sides of the ball as the Crimson turned back the Leopards, 27-13, in a non-league game at Fisher Stadium.

Playing against a Lafayette team that was leading the nation in defense entering play, allowing just over nine points per game, Harvard stormed out of the gates and put up 24 points in the opening half, taking a 24-13 lead into the locker room. The Crimson then showcased its own defense - which has ranked among the nation's best over each of the last four seasons.

SENIOR QB CHRIS PIZZOTTI

(READING), poised to move higher on the Ivy League's all-time passing list, finished with 15 completions for 231 yards, including a 67-yard touchdown pass to Chris Lorditch.

•The UMass Lowell baseball team will travel to Sweden for a 10-day tour, featuring a three-game series with the Swedish national team, Aug. 22-Sept. 2, Head Coach Ken Harrington announced.

The team will fly from Boston to Stockholm Saturday, Aug. 22 and will face the national team on Aug. 28, 29 and 30 in the capital city. The River Hawks are also expected to face several club teams to be announced.

"This is an opportunity to see how baseball is played in another country," Harrington said. "It is going to be a team-building experience where we will play baseball in another part of the world and learn about the customs of another country."

The trip is the result of a series of talks between Harrington and representatives of the Swedish Baseball-Softball Federation which began at the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) Convention.

UMass-Lowell features several local players on its roster, including freshmen PATRICK DEVLIN (TEWKSBURY, MA), VINCENT DEPIERRO (TEWKSBURY, MA), each former Merrimack Valley Conference standouts, and VINCENT DICESARE (LYNNFIELD, MA) AND PHIL PERRIELLO (LYNNFIELD, MA), teammates at Lynnfield H.S.

•ANSWER TO THIS WEEK'S TRIVIA QUESTION:

The year was 1996, when the Yankees defeated the Orioles.

Winchester World Series

league field went under construction to be retrofitted into a youth size field for the tournament. The community of Aberdeen embraced the Cal Ripken World Series and Aberdeen soon became the permanent home of the Cal Ripken World Series.

In 2006, the team representing Hawaii won their second consecutive World Series, defeating the team from Mexico, in an exciting 5-2 game that was televised nationally on OLN (since changed to Versus). Brothers Cal Ripken, Jr. and Bill Ripken will be in the broadcast booth to call all of the action for this year's championship game.

The mission of Ripken Baseball is to spread the game of baseball worldwide, the Ripken Way. The Cal Ripken World Series is a true display of the Ripken experience that baseball lovers around the globe have come to know and love.

The Babe Ruth League is committed to giving young baseball and softball players a once-in-a-lifetime experience when participating in the World Series events. Part of this experience is giving each team an equal opportunity to travel around the country to participate in these World Series Events, which is why the Babe Ruth League uses the Host Family program to house all of the players during their week long stay.

The Cal Ripken "Host Family" program also presents a unique opportunity for Winchester residents and residents throughout the Middlesex East area to help the cause. Host families will be needed to provide housing for out-of-town players (two per home). Over the years, the Host Family program has been one of the most popular and positive aspects of the World Series experience. The "adopted" players have formed lasting friendships with their host families and built great memories along the way.

In addition to the families of the Winchester team that will play in the World Series, SYBS will be seeking additional volunteers for the Host Family program. If you would like to volunteer to serve as a Host Family, please contact Ellen LeMay of the Sachem Youth Baseball / Softball Association at 781-756-0583.

If you would like to participate as a sponsor, help with concessions, or obtain additional information about the 2009 World Series, please contact either Michael Creane (781-729-6306 or michaelcreane@verizon.net) or Rich Michienzi (rmichienzi@verizon.net) of the Sachem Youth Baseball / Softball Association.

Builders bringing eco-friendly features home

As rising gas prices pinch the pocketbook, saving green and living green is fast becoming today's mantra. And with less travel forecast for this year, it's only natural that more of us are looking home-ward for ways to cut back on energy use.

National homebuilders are keeping pace with this move to be more environmentally responsible, designing houses that are energy conscious from the ground up.

For those looking to buy a new home, some builders are offering features designed to lower operating costs and save money year-round. For example, Beazer Homes is incorporating products designed to save energy, conserve water and improve indoor air quality as standard features in its new homes.

Called eSMART, it is the first comprehensive program of its size for a top-10 national homebuilder, and is helping to raise the benchmark on eco-friendly building across the country. All new Beazer homes come equipped with programmable thermostats, ENERGY STAR dishwashers, higher-efficiency air filters and water-saving faucets and showerheads as standard features.

"Today's home buyers want to do their part to help the environment, but they also need to save money," said Tony Callahan, senior vice president of planning and design for Beazer. "With our eSMART homes, they can do both."

For example, compact fluorescent lightbulbs (CFLs), which also come standard in all Beazer homes, are expected to save the homeowner about $331 each year in energy and replacement costs.

For Older Homes

A new home is not in the future for everyone, so here are some suggestions from the Environmental Protection Agency and other experts on how to cut back on energy use now:

Seal Gaps in Windows and Doors. You want the seal to be tight, so you may need to caulk where the frames meet the siding. Tighter seals will prevent warm and cool air loss.

Switch to CFLs. About 10 percent of electric bills come from lighting. Using CFLs will help cut back on what it costs to light your home.

Update Appliances. In most kitchens, the refrigerator is the largest energy-using appliance. Replacing a 20-year-old refrigerator with a new ENERGY STAR model will save enough energy to light the average home for nearly four months.

Learn More. For more information on how to save energy and money with a new home, visit www.beazer.com/esmart/.

Taking a few simple steps at home can help you save money and the environment.

This week's sampler: Wilmington

Cute as a button at a grea price

So many updates in this cottage style cape are evident as soon as you see this charming property.

The inviting flower lined walkway to the front door is your first image of warmth and a well manicured and maintained property. An unusual oversized three season porch with great architectural windows, recessed lighting and two ceiling fans will lure you right away. Picture sitting and enjoying friends or casual dining.

The living/dining room combination allows for a flexible floor plan. A newer economical and efficient pellet stove is just what will be needed for the long winter nights. Pull up your favorite easy chair to sit by the fireplace and enjoy a Patriots' game on your wall mounted plasma TV!

The country kitchen is complete with a country brick wall, a built-in cupboard and updated stainless stove and dishwasher. The sellers are including, as a gift, a refrigerator. A large eat in area and a charming full bath complete the first floor.

A back stair case will bring you to the three cozy bedrooms on the second floor that are filled with character. The newest addition is a magnificent spa type full bath with soaking jetted tub, separate tiled shower and all highend fixtures. The bonus is a full laundry in the new bath for convenience.

The detached two car garage, with loft area, is perfect for the homeowner who has a need for storage, as well as space. A new electric panel has just been added.

The whole yard and landscaping will "Wow" most anyone. Beautiful planters, flower gardens and an above the ground pool make for your own resort like atmosphere. Relax, entertain and enjoy the beautiful patio and fire pit.

This house reflects the numerous updates all that have taken place in the past 4-5 years.

The roof shingles, heating system, hot water heater, electric panel boxes, plumbing as needed, a complete state of the art radon mitigation system, windows and gorgeous baths. The exterior is vinyl sided for easy maintenance.

Proudly offered at $379,900.
